Report on last week's meeting

President Trevor Schofield welcomed all, specially Eric Croker and welcomed back Bob Lawson and Bernie Cowley. Trevor thanked all the members responsible for the success of the TAFE night, the GSE BBQ, the bush walk, the lunch/meeting as well as the billiters and the members who provided transport. Operation Cleft newsletter was received and individual donations will be greatly appreciated.

Aaron Bennett was presented with his “Friend of Rotary” badge.

Peter Culham; tonight's attendance 75%, Calcutta night 89%

PP Rob Powell thanked the members for their help and specially Dick Crouch, John Ruggiero and Wayne Fry. 7175 tickets were sold, Linda Smith alone sold 1000 tickets; our profit is $2575. Thank you Rob Powell for your help.

Treasurer Keith Bennett thanked Simon Brown, Bob Lawson, Brian Morrison, Kevin Walsh and Aaron Bennett for their help with the Jumping Castle. The Jumping Castle is in need of good cleaning; a BBQ working bee will be organised. The Bulletin's future circulation was discussed.

Secretary Joe Puglisi received a thank you letter from RI for billeting the GSE team, Joe also received correspondence re the Moss Vale Charity Day, the Miltones, View Club, Warwick Backhouse, Polio, Christmas Cakes and Michael Puglisi's book launch.

Craig Saunders asked the members to revive the workplace visits, any suggestions?

Community Service Director Dale Wilford reminded us of the Carols by candle lights at SAS and spoke on BowelScan, bike racks, Christmas Trees and the Mental Health Forum.

Two Minuter Eric Croker spoke on the New Year's fireworks and thanked John Hozack and the Wilkins for their support. Eric is seeking financial support, local food vendors, a stage for live music, volunteers and an MC.

Almoner Dom Fondacaro said that Sid Turnbull is well; Clive Johnston is in a retirement village at Georges Basin and wife Monica is in hospital.

Best wishes to Tim Gregory who is undergoing back surgery, 24 Nov.
