Burrill Park; erected car barriers, grass mowing and several clean ups. We assisted and participated in a free music evening in the park. We commenced improvements at the Rotary Lookout. The newspaper collection was expanded, to include cardboard. The Steak Van attended the BOF Saturday night and Sunday. We assisted with the BOF Fun Run.

The hole in one Golf competition organised by our Club was another first. The Clean Up Australia Campaign again was conducted by our Club. 15 trestle tables were constructed for use at Rotary BBQs and other functions. The Mollymook Surf Life Saving Club first aid kit was restocked. Rotary Bowel Scan to develop a programme for this area. Canadian YE Heidi Marr here for 12 months. YE Glenn Wallace returned from Finland. Awards were presented to Herman Jansen, John Patterson, Michael Baxter, Kevin Lugg, Paul Helmore, Michael Gardiner and Kylie Turnbull. The Steam Engine received a face-lift. We continued with Meals on Wheels. Wendy Ross represented Rotary at the Milton Show. A successful Games Night was held at Mary and Brian Watson's residence. 4 District Schools were given $50 each to purchase gifts for speech night. PP Dom Fondacaro initiated and organised the first Christmas Ham Raffle. Two resuscitation mannequins were donated to the local Ambulance. The 2 minute Job talks were introduced. We sent 2 students to Science Summer School. HS Students attended a Careers Seminar in Canberra.

Club History. 1991-92 President Robin Cantrill

RI Theme: Look Beyond Yourself

The Rotary Lookout; we repaired the BBQ area and did more work. Marie Pascoe was our Club's Miss Showgirl. Our recycling shed kept Club members busy. The Rotary section of the Burrill Park was improved by concreting in benches, lawn mowing and repairing posts and rails. We sponsored the Police Drivers Education Programme for the HS. The Debate between APEX and Rotary ended with Rotary being the victors. YE Heidi Marr returned to Canada. YE student Mimoka Momoko arrived from Japan. We entertained a group of 22 Rotarians and partners from England. Awards were presented to Kerry Wild, Lyall Gorman, Cathie Le Brun, Michael Mastronardi, Jenny McCauly, Olga Robinson, Louise Lomas and William Drury. We assisted at the Milton Show by manning the Steak House. We hosted 2 GSE Teams from Chicago USA and from England. The Christmas Ham Raffle was conducted again. A highly successful Careers Night was conducted at the Ulladulla High School. Kate Rash and Robin Shea sent RYPEN Camp, Allan Wylie to RYLA. Kirsten Robertson stayed with us from New Zealand while Natalie Ryan and Mardi Pollard went to NZ on the twin exchange. The Catering Van was busy with Ham Raffle, BOF, Milton Show and Christmas BBQ. The Mollymook Surf Club first aid kit was restocked.
