Report on last week's meeting;

President Trevor Schofield welcomed all and specially Phil Smart.
Kevin Walsh announced our attendance: 68.8%.

Craig Saunders talked about the 30 Rotarians from NSW and Vic who will be here 23 Feb. Numbers next week for the BBQ.

Dale Wilford is getting quotes for four banners and mentioned the BowlScan and the May Mental Health Forum.

Keith Bennett said that the Life Education Van got bogged and thanked Steve Avasalu (Cranes) for not charging Rotary, Keith thanked Simon Brown for the special price we paid for the gazebo we purchased.

Phil Brown talked about the BOF; well under control, more sponsors on the way, Ross Wade in charge of entertainment, will have Funland rides, beach games are back, the Parade will finish in front of the Civic centre and we will have more displays this year. Robyn Phillips gave the BOF Ball participants an etiquette talk.

Secretary Joe Puglisi received invitations to attend the Probus Club of Ulladulla and Districts and the Probus Club of Milton-Ulladulla's Luncheons, invitation from RC of Batemans Bay's 50th Ball 12 June 2010 and received the Rotary World Newsletter.

Bob White was the Sergeant and was helped by Brian Morrison.
Card Raffle winner was Bill Harris ♠
Dale Wilford Award went to Clive Cross.

Tim Gregory presented our Club with a $2600 cheque from selling the Christmas Trees. Thank you Tim.

Guest Speaker Phil Smart talked on the Ulladulla Harbour Fossil Walks, he has conducted 16 guided tours so far. Phil said our area has world class features such as quality Glendomite crystals and easy access to harbour and rock platforms. He also mentioned the Geological Trails and the Brodie Park Rock Garden proposal. An interesting but very long presentation.

End of report.

Club History. 1992-93 President Ross Wade

RI Theme: Real Happiness Is Helping Others

An exercise unit donated by Ulladulla Joinery was put into place at the Combined Services Club Park. The Bowel Scan was organised by our Club and conducted by Dr Bill Bennett and staff.

An outdoor gas BBQ Complex was constructed for the Yurana Cancer Group at Bawley Point Holiday Home.

The Christmas Ham Raffle and Calcutta were well organised. Special meetings were held such as New Citizen Night, High School Captains Night and a past Milton Ulladulla Rotarian Night.

Our Club was successful in winning the debate with APEX. A new Perpetual Trophy was presented to the winning Club. Matthew Dell attended the RYLA Seminar, Richard Pratt attended the National Engineering Summer School. The Careers Night was held. Michelle Cooney, Tony Cannel, Margaret Corbett, Adam Poulus and Michelle Tyquin attended RYPEN.

Ashley Neale was the TAFE Student of the Year Award and the Apprentice of the Year Award was Scott Barclay. Georgina Dell was selected to be Rotary's Showgirl. Exchange Student Molly Momoko from Japan returned home.

On the New Zealand Exchange we accepted Heather Willis from New Zealand, while Sharon Griffith went to New Zealand. The local Guides Hall was attended to by laying a new floor. The Surf Clubs First Aid Kid was refurbished.

Two Ladies outings were organised, a garden party and a casserole night.

Clean Up Australia again was a success. The Courtesy Award was presented to Janie Zuber. Our paper and cardboard collection kept us busy so did the Catering Van. Pride of Workmanship certificates awarded to Des Ladimore, Richard Lloyd, Bob Lawson and the Lioness Club. Vocational visits were made to the Veterinary Clinic and GRR Gourmet Chicken.
