Report on last week’s meeting;

President Trevor welcomed our Guest Speakers Hannah Peart and Janice Harris, thanked Aaron Bennett for his help with the Rotary Park BBQ, Bernie Cowley for representing us at Probus, Craig Saunders for organising Cupitt’s and thanked all the helpers at the Milton Show.

Our Board has allocated $2000 for the Life Education Van.

Thank you Jeff Franklin and Simon Brown for helping Dale Wilford with the installation of the bike racks.

Kevin Walsh announced our attendance 79.5%

Secretary Joe Puglisi received the ROMAC Newsletter, TAFE annual graduation ceremony, Rotary Friendship Exchange 15 Oct, a thank you from ShelterBox, SCC Mobility and Access Day, ARF race day at Rosehill racecourse 8 May.

Treasurer Keith Bennett said the raffle is worth $285, the Life Education Van requires $40,000, all Clubs will need to help.

Dale Wilford announced that the BowelScan kits are now available at local pharmacies. The ShelterBox display at the Milton Show raised $306, Dale thanked the helpers and specially Tim Gregory for providing the space.

PP Dick Crouch reminded members of the BOF Ball, helpers needed Fri 19 Mar 12 to 1.30pm for setting up and Sat 20 Mar from 5.00pm (ushers, security, bar) and specially at 11.00pm for cleaning up.

PP Phil Brown said that Emily Wilford is the winner of the Milton Show Girl competition. Phil said that Coles, SCC, Bendigo Bank and Ulladulla Fishing Co-Op are the major sponsors of the BOF $5 to 10,000 each. A roster for Sat 3 April and Easter Sunday is circulating.

PP Craig Cameron is flying to Peru, to help restore the sight to hundreds of the indigenous people of Peru, with a team of Australian ophthalmologists to the Andes in May, to treat cataracts in the ageing community of the Colca Valley. The Australian Alpaca Association project will be backed by a generous subsidy from the Australian-based Ramsay Group of Private Hospitals.

Our Club has donated $1,000 towards this appeal. Donations are gladly accepted.

Craig is also collecting donations towards the Leukaemia Foundation, he is having his hair shaven for the cause.

Almoner PP Dom Fondacaro said that Werner Pohl, John Hozack and Wayne Fry have visited Clive and Monica Johnston and that they welcome any visitors. Sid Turnbull is fine.

The CWA meeting; partners are welcomed but it is limited to 44 on a first in basis. Helpers are needed at 4pm for setting up.

Our Anniversary Dinner 24 Apr 2010; please pay now.

The success of the night depends on your attendance. It will be a reunion, a night of reminiscing, a get together with past members, some are travelling from interstate, some have left our area 5-10 or 20 years ago but are coming back to celebrate the night with us, also joining us are Rotarians from our District and other Districts..

Let us all commemorate our achievements to our community and to Rotary.

It is at the Ex-Servo's, not far from where we all live.

Dale Wilford Award went to Craig Cameron.

Wayne Fry was the Sergeant and helped by Denise Fors.

The Card Raffle winner was Ken Matthews 8♦

Guest Speaker Hannah Peart talked about arriving this morning aboard the hospital ship "Pacific Link" which docked at our Harbour on its way to Adelaide then back up the East coast all the way to Papua New Guinea in Aug-Sept 2010 then return to Townsville.

A team of health care workers provide eye care, dentistry, primary health care and health education in PNG, the ship is always looking for donations and for volunteer workers from deckhands, engineers to captains or those prepared to help with anything.

Their motto is TELL, GIVE, GO.

End of last week's report.
