Club History:

2006-07 President Geoff Muir

RI Theme: Lead The Way.

We assisted Mullala with the improvement of the facility to convert the nursery shop from wholesale to wholesale-retail. We helped with the painting of the Ulladulla Scout Hall.

Our Club by liaising with Sussex Inlet Rotary Club formed an Interact Club at the Shoalhaven Anglican School.

7 students participated in the Siemens Science Experience and 2 attended the RYPEN camp.

Our Club helped with the annual Business Award Night.

A Youth Mental Forum was organised. Mr Bartholomew Sanau from the Solomon Islands visited us and thanked our Club for sending school books and mosquito nets to his school and district.

Clive Cross looked after the Bowel Scan in our area. We supported the Shoebox Appeal. TAFE Student of the Year was Peter Tennant. Mr Ryan Marcello attended RYLA.

Rotary Information Night for newly inducted members was held at Werner and Margaret Pohl's home. The Calcutta Night was held at the Mollymook Golf Club. The high school captains were guest speakers at our Club.

Christmas Trees were kindly donated by Janelle and Tim Gregory and netted our Club $1775. Werner and Margaret Pohl provided the Christmas presents for our Rotary ladies. A Prawn and Pizza Night was held at the Rotary Park.

Peter and Carolyn Campbell completed their New Zealand Charity Bike Ride and raised $4783.10 for the "Mens Shed" in Ulladulla.

Phil Brown organised the Rotary Swap Meet, we manned the Jumping Castle and supported the Salvation Army Appeal on the same day.

2 quiz nights were held during the year.

A Christmas meeting was held at Janelle and Tim Gregory's property. A cabaret style entertainment was performed at the Civic Centre with our help. We looked after the GSE team from Texas for a few days.

The RAM project assisted 3 villages in the Solomon Islands and Guada Canal. We provided a Shelter Box for the Solomon Islands. We supported the National Boys Choir and promoted the opening night of a play. Craig Saunders was in charge of the Milton Ulladulla Business Award Presentation Night. Certificates of Appreciation were presented to all Board members as well as to Bob Lawson (Jumping Castle) and Peter Hughes (Life Education Van). Issa Shalhoub was named the Rotarian of the Year.
