While the cost has exceeded budget Michael feels that the benefit that the students get from undertaking specialist driver training from experts makes them a fitter person to drive on the roads once they get their license. Michael urges that this program be continued into 2011.

Michael further reminded us that the Helipad program at Milton is a work in progress and reaffirmed that Stuart Ellerslie from the Milton Hospital, who is coordinating the program, will be coming to the club in the new year to outline where they are at.

Guest Speaker Eve Bosak

Eve gave us a very entertaining and informative outline of where she started in life and how she got to where she is today. She made excellent use of the slide projector which allowed her to introduce where she lived in living colour to all the places in between.

Eve was a £10 Pom arriving in Australia in 1969. Very shortly after moved to Canberra, back to Sydney after completing a degree, worked for Lend Lease where she was posted to Indonesia and got used to the “comforts ‘of life by not having to cook, clean or drive. Back to Sydney, where she was offered a job in Washington USA with the World Bank. Again travelled to all the beautiful countries like Pakistan, Afghanistan, etc etc

Her family lived through the 9/11 bombings in Washington while Eve was in Afghanistan. Could not go home for 3 weeks after!

Now living in Australia has started a part time business still working with the Asian developing economies.

Eve has recently, partnered by her husband Myron, completed building a new home in Manyana and is looking to settle down a little more after what has been a whirlwind career.

We welcome her to the Club.

Catchphrase competition.

After 10 weeks of leaving a box on the table and Carolyn urging members to consider placing a catchphrase in the box, we finally have a resolution on the matter.

Around 7 phrases were circulated and behold while on circulation another was added. The one that was added simply said “No Catchphrase required” and this got the majority of votes. So the Club being democratic in nature, Carolyn suggested there be no catchphrase.

Rugby World Cup Down Under 2011.

Guest speaker courtesy

Fellow members over recent weeks it has become very obvious that sections of our members are showing less than common courtesy to our guest speakers. Increasingly conversations, unrelated to the topic being offered by the Guest Speaker, can be heard. This is unbecoming of a Rotarian. Imagine if you were the guest speaker and all you heard was a mumble of conversation unrelated to your topic. You too would be embarrassed and leave the place where you spoke with a bad taste in your mouth.

So come on guys if you can't hear or see what's going on, come closer to where the speaker is and show some interest. Guest speakers put them selves out for us so why should we not reciprocate and give them the courtesy of listening.

On the light side

A salesman was trying to persuade a housewife to buy a life insurance policy. “Just imagine, if your husband were to die,” he said. “What would you get?” “Oh a sheep dog I would think,” replied the wife. “They’re so well behaved.”
