Last week's meeting:

Guests: Maisie Bennett, Jacqui Thomson and Guest Speaker Deb Benson.

Vice-President PP John Hozack said that Dale is progressing well, slowly but surely. John thanked Michael Mastronardi for chairing last night's board meeting. Thank you to Simon Brown and Robin Cantrill for the banner poles.

Jeni Wilkins spoke on TAFE night and Most Improved Student award.

Carolyn Campbell thanked Margun Carless for her effort with the Today Show.

Brian Morrison said that we have now 53 applicants for the BOF Princess for 2012, full house, Brian thanked Dick Crouch and Alison Tyquin for their help.

RYLA nominations closes 30 Nov, please spread the word.

Thank you Brian for organising the Get Well card and the signatures for Dale.

Almoner Alan Foreman Jenny Cantrill is getting better, Clive Johnston is not well.

Thanks Alan for organising flowers and Sympathy card for Jean Bennett's funeral.

Clive Cross and Issa Shalhoub showed a power point presentation on raising money for Polio, the presentation was granted approval to be shown at the District Conference in October, thanks to our DG Rob Woolley.

Once that is done it will get recognition in the Newsletter "Rotary on the Move", distributed to well over 3,000 Rotarians in Australia, New Zealand, the South Pacific Islands, RI and other countries all over the world.

If any one wishes a CD copy of the presentation, free of charge, please see Issa.

Thank you to Margun Carless for volunteering to help with writing articles for our polio project.

Help will be needed at the Conference with the distribution of the Safe Moneyboxes.

District Conferences, from personal experience, are a MUST ATTEND for all members and specially new ones, a great way to see what Rotary is doing at District level, listen to keynote speakers, meet friends and make new ones.

Michael Mastronardi has a master plan for Rotary Park.

Graham Fisher needs approved traffic controllers for the Oct long weekend and helpers for the Jumping Castle.

Card Raffle winner was Graham Fisher 7♠

44 Club winner; Keith Greenwood.

Guest Speaker Deb Benson has lived in our area for 17 years, and spoke on the three books she wrote, one was about her mother and Alzheimer, the second about her great-great grandmother and her three months trip to get to Australia and the third about lyrebird's song. Deb said how hard it is to get publishers if you are not known, Deb is now working on a science fiction book. Deb handwrites then transfers to computer. Deb can go through weeks without inspiration or even months.

ULLADULLA HARBOURFEAST. Masquerade Ball, Sat 29 Oct;

Rotary tables will be reserved, (for our members, family and friends), at the Masquerade Ball, please see Margun for seats booking.
