Card Draw: Mark Wilkins 2H

President Dale advised the club that it was with regret that Joe Puglisi's resignation has been accepted by the board. It is hoped that Joe will be able to rejoin us in the future.

Secretary: Service hours are being collected across the region; Directors' reports are required by the bulletin editor for inclusion in the weekly bulletin.

Certificate of appreciation has been received from the local Davenport Cottage in recognition of Rotary's support.

Keith Bennett took bookings for upcoming Christmas dinner at Masquerade's Lake Tabourie.

Craig on behalf of Peter Culham advised the club about the special night at the Plaza on 13 December. The oysters sound good. Bookings required

International Report: Clive Cross toasted the National Day of Lebanon and the National Railways Day.

Community Service Graham Fisher noted the training program for the Cash Housie nights.

CHRISTMAS TREES Graham noted that the club will sell the trees from Tim Gregory's property on 3 Saturdays (10 – 1) and 2 Sundays (1 – 2) before Christmas – volunteers required.

Jenny Wilkins noted that there will not be an apprenticeship award this year but local businesshouses will be advised to contribute entrants to the Pride of Workmanship Award Programme.

Special competition held for the best example of a mo-vember. Contestants included Bill Harris, Phil Brown, Simon Brown and Ross Wade. Simon won.
