Last Week's Meeting Reports:

The club was enthralled by the information given by Carolyn Lee talking about efficient management of electricity supply. Many ways and ideas were suggested. Rotarians are reminded that if they take up particular offers before the end of February they will not only gain discounts on solar paneling but the club will also receive a rebate from her company. A very enjoyable and informative evening.

President Dale reminded us that the Ranfurly organization is on the lookout for more books to be sent overseas.

Treasurer Keith reminded us about the six monthly fees to be paid and the state of our accounts:

Account 1: $131110
Account 2: 13031
Account 3: 531
Account 4: 213 Harbourfest
Account 5: $24176 Blessing of the Fleet
Term Deposit $22075
Life Ed 9659

Many thanks to those members who assisted at the Australia Day festivities with the Jumping Castle and also those who helped wash and polish the van last Saturday 28 January.

International Eve: Note that things are well under way for the forthcoming visit by the Taiwanese contingent on the Rotary Exchange programme. Trevor Schofield kindly offered to act as bus driver especially as the team has to be transported to Cooma after our few days. On That occasion the Club meeting will be changed to that of a barbeque at Rotary Park.

Vacancies are available for the Rotary Friendship Exchange trip to Greece April/ May. Our Shelter Boxes have not yet been deployed overseas but may be held for emergencies. A program has been submitted for a matching grant for the Eyes for Africa campaign. Notice was made for the legislation changes for volunteers in organizations and training schedules required.

Youth Service; 47 Princesses are now participating in the Blessing of the Fleet pageant for which the ball will proceed.

Clive Cross reminded us about the progress of the Moneybox programme and the fact that orders are still coming in.

Yvonne reminded us not to forget the Alzheimer's Van coming to town on Monday 31.

Card Draw: Jenni Wilkins 8 spades.
