Thoughts for the Week:

Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others, cannot keep it from themselves.

Reach for the high apples first, you can get the low ones anytime.

Last Week's Meeting

Another active and informative evening was held at our club despite the limited number of director reports

International toast to Brunei and Guyana

Phil Brown gave update on the Blessing of the Fleet programme. In particular he introduced the new public flyers on the programme and invited members to assist in delivering the flyers around the community businesshouses.

Youth Service Brian again reminded us about the great set of princesses and their partners preparing for their first public function at the Blessing of the Fleet Ball to be held at the end of March.

Vocational Jenni mentioned the TAFE campus Award for Excellence coming up 20 March and the Blessing of the Fleet Award. Arrangements will be made for rekltive venues to be organised for the Business of the Year Award Evening to occur late August.

Almoner – all well at this stage

Books for Ranfurley will be taken soon to NOwra base

RELAY FOR LIFE – Rotarians are invited to share with other community organisations and submit a team to walk the track in support of cancer awareness and prevention.

44 Club – Dick Crouch the winner
Card Draw Trevor Schofield 10 Clubs

Issa reminded members to record their service hours every month to be forwarded to the Rotary survey office.

Brian Morrison gave a very informative power point display about the Rotary club's current relationship with the HarbourFeast programme.

Approval of the Members

Next week the members will be asked to vote on this matter.

Sponsors have already been identified.

The Project Team members have also been identified.

The only uncertainty is cost of Equipment hire and Entertainment.

You will be asked to vote for or against holding HarbourFeast in 2012.
