Thoughts for the Week:

There is no point about arguing about matters of taste

The road to excellence is always under construction

Last week's meeting was ably chaired by our President Dale accompanied by his friends

Many visitors attended our club last week including representatives of the Central West Rotovanners. These included Graham & Yvonne Booth, Ken & Brenda Fishpool; John & Carol Livingstone from Orange; Kevin & Sandra Harper from Temora; Doug & Sue Coates from Bathurst

Local club members also enjoyed the smorgasboard and speaker.

Secretary Carolyn advised the club of a thank you note from the Ulladulla Childrens Centre for the recent Rotary support.

Treasurer Keith reminded the club about our positive finances and impressed on us that in view of our programs we are now in the Tier 1 category of clubs raising over quarter million dollars.

Rob Powell filled his working spots for the upcoming Milton Show weekend.

Leonie Smith thanked the club for its support of the Relay for Life programme during 2011. She gave an overview of the success of the activity last year and invited the club to attend an even bigger and better Relay for Life this Year. President Dale asked the club again to consider sending a team to compete in the charity event.

Guest speaker Lloyd Lyons gave the club a very informative picture of life in Saudi Arabia during the 1980's. Lloyd was working there for 20 months.

Graham Fisher invited volunteers to assist with the collection of the Bowel Scan kits from the local chemists.

President Elect Michael Mastronardi advised the club that he would be attending the upcoming president elect's workshop at Campbelltown.

The club decided that September 11 would be the better date for the upcoming Business Award's night.

Special Decision about the Rotary Club support for the 2012 HarbourFest : The club has voted to maintain the support of the Ulladulla Harbour Feast activity for 2012.

International Eve advised the club that we had been very successful in gaining support for our two main international ventures namely Eyes for Africa with thanks to Michael Van Ewijk and Cambodia educational program to assist in the nurturing of young children.
