Thoughts for the Week:

Man's education is never complete: while you live, you learn...

Many people convince themselves that if it is economically necessary, it's morally right. It is not always the case...

Guest speaker Michael Davey and wife

Secretary: Milton Folies advise that the Arabian Nights will be presented on 15 – 24 June. For information phone 445450066. Volunteers are required for the local Ulladulla Respite for the Fragile Aged.

Treasurer: Accounts are healthy with raffle now over $300 value.

Certain tables are going cheap for takers.

Community: Bowel Scan program is going well as with Charity Bingo

International: The National RAWCS committee has approved the Eyes for Africa, Ethiopia Project with project registration number forthcoming. This means that donations will be tax deductible. $1000 will be donated from the club.

Youth Service: Applications are now open for the National Youth Science Forum and the May RYPEN camp. The roster for the upcoming Blessing of the Fleet Ball was discussed.

Brian Johnson advised that Brian Johnson had won the lotto draw for the month.

Congratulations, Brian on your eightieth birthday. The other candles will come over time when we can afford them all.

NEWSFLASH

Phil Brown has had his operation in Sydney last Wednesday and seems to be recuperating well. He should have come home as at Monday evening. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Below: visitors Masaki Mori and daughter Asuka Mori from Japan. Masaki had visited our club about twenty years ago.

Wayne Fry advised the club members about the rosters required for Easter Sunday 8 April. Volunteers will be required at the end of the day for a general cleanup of the area. There will be two Rotary venues one to sell raffle tickets for the barbecue tables and the other is the Jumping Castle.

Rob White advised that the Rotary club has now been able to secure a team for the upcoming Relay For Life event to raise money for cancer awareness.

President Dale won the card draw but not the joker.

Dom Fondacaro advised that the council has changed the keybox for the Rotary Park barbecues. The Easter Monday luncheon will be taking notices of intention to attend ; the Pizza & Prawn luncheon will commence at 12 midday. Please advise Dom of your intention.

Guest speaker Dr Michael Davey gave us a very personal account of his own life of hardship, family trauma and foster care problems as well as his personal battle with depression episodes. His story is an encouragement to us all and shows that people can overcome adversity to achieve. Please see the attached flyer for his well accepted book.
