LAST WEEK

Almoner's Report:

Phil Brown is still recuperating

Peter Culham is now also recovering

Max Atkins is also improving.

Card Raffle:

Kevin Walsh 8 clubs

Attendance: 87.5 %

Treasurer advised that raffle is now worth over $400. Life Education Van is now at St Georges Basin pending removal to Ulladulla District over vacation.

INTERNATIONAL Our club has been asked to contribute 2 shelter box value $1600 as part of drive to gather $1million for emergency supply of boxes.

Kokoda Track Foundation is also seeking support for programme to assist villages from the district as part of Australia's thank you to the local people for supporting Australia during the war crisis. It has been suggested that a representative come and speak to the club about the project.

President Elect Michael advised the club that Dianne Woods from IMB has contributed considerably towards the local Driver Education programme.

Vocational: 11 September, 2012 will host Ulladulla Business Awards Night.

Brian Morrison thanked those members of the club who so willingly helped to make the recent Blessing of the Fleet ball such a wonderful success. Princess winners for the year are: Shayna Wilson, Connie Vialatis; Rose Pearce. Rob Powell also thanked Ali and Dick for their support in the bar. Well done, Brian

Rob White gave last minute planning schedule for the upcoming Relay for Life Project.
