Last week's meeting:

President Michael Mastronardi welcomed our guest Matt Potter and mentioned from the recent Board meeting: John Ruggiero has resigned, viewing platform, IMB donation of $2,000 for Driver Education, Origin Energy and the Times are the major sponsors for the Business Award, and the flag poles.

Almoner Dom Fondacaro said that Eve Bosak is home, Phyllis Cowley and Zilma Turnbull are under treatment.

Entertainment; Dom talked about what he is planning, a Progressive Dinner, Tom Burlinson Sat 4 Aug dinner and show $75 at Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre (a bus might be organised if we have enough interested members), the Italian Spring Ball Friday 14 Sept, new movie release and wine making in next February.

Attendance as per Peter Culham 87.5%

Please see Keith Bennett if you do not wish to participate in the 44 Club.

Members voted to go to Masquerades for our Christmas Dinner in December.

Tim Gregory won the raffle and drew the Joker, he took Arnold home again.

Guest speaker Matt Potter spoke on the Milton to the Coast Link Pathway, a proposed two metres wide concrete shared pathway. Matt is ambulance officer with a strong passion for seeing the construction of a pathway from the traffic lights in Milton to the pathway in Tallwood Avenue, through Frogs Holla, for safety and touristic reasons. A survey was conducted, 417 respondents took part and 57% said they would use the pathway twice a week, 78% said that the current access is unsatisfactory and the project should be high on the Shoalhaven City Council priority list.

End of last week's report.
