Rotarians carried the Olympic torch

Several Rotarians, nominated for their 'Service Above Self', have carried the torch on its relay to London.

Olympics 2012 is a major boost for gender equality

All 204 participating countries included female competitors for the first time in history.

Last week's meeting:

PP Dick Crouch chaired the meeting and welcomed our guests Eugene and Joyce Neri, Jeiji and Maurie Abbott. Dick said that Eve Bosak is recovering well, she is very appreciative of our concern, any member can ring Myron and call in for a short stay, but please ring first.

Clive Cross toasted Bolivia.

John Hozack and Tony Fondacaro spoke on the "Ulladulla and Districts Social Group for Italians and Friends", a Spring Dance is scheduled for Friday 14 Sept at the Ex-Servos, 6.00 pm start, 4 course meal and entertainment by 'Fortunato Isgro' at $50 a head, please spread the word, as the social group helps our Club.

Keith Bennett; will need volunteers for manning the Jumping Castle, 15 Aug, numbers next week.

Jeni Wilkins; our Council has waived the fees for the Business Award Night, Jeni will address the Business Chamber re the Business Award Night. The Rotary Business Award Night, and links to "Entry Forms" are on our Club's website and Facebook.

Wayne Fry; 10th Anniversary Knit In, knitting squares, made by community members, were collected from the library, 3 large bags, and were transported to Sydney thanks to Peter Hughes. Street banners advertising Rotary and its work, have been ordered, John Patterson to make and Simon Brown to erect.

Brian Morrison thanked Dom Fondacaro for a great night at the Nowra Entertainment Centre. Milton showground is being considered for next year's BOF Ball.

Guest Speakers Maurie and Jeiji Abbott, former Rotarians, Padstow Club, and helped by Eugene and Joyce Neri, spoke on a project they completed with the help of the Rotary Club of Padstow. When they started the Rapha Maternity Clinic in Cebu, Philippines, had no ceiling, doors nor windows.

Eugene and Joyce Neri, Jeiji and Maurie Abbott

They used local contractors rather than volunteers from Australia, cheaper, and got help from Donations In Kind to finish the building and furnish it.

Now the Clinic has an operating theatre, 30 beds, fridges and computers.

The Clinic will soon have a doctor and midwives.

End of last week's report.
