Apologies and guests, please ring Peter Culham on 4455 1588.

Members need to inform the attendance officer if they will not be attending a meeting, otherwise they will have to pay for their meal; as we are charged for numbers given by the attendance officer.

Last week's meeting report:

Pres Michael Mastronardi welcomed the guests; Mark Scott and Leonie Smith. Michael thanked the members who attended the Rotary Park meeting n Wed 19 Sept, and advised that the Park will be the location of the new water filling station. Michael congratulated Alison on the birth of her granddaughter. A reminder that the Ignite the Plaza needs our attendance. Michael also reminded the members of the upcoming District Conference.

Clive Cross toasted Confucius (Chinese philosopher, 551-479 BC) who said: "It is easy to hate and it is difficult to love. This is how the whole scheme of things works. All good things are difficult to achieve; and bad things are very easy to get."

Jeni Wilkins; thanked all the helpers with the Business Awards Night. There might be a trip to Terry Marchello's MRTeam, 184 Little Forest Road on Sat 6 Oct at 2pm.

Phil Brown; asked for Jumping Castle helpers.

Geoff Muir advised that the RAM project 'Adopt A Village' is alive and going strong.

Attendance as per Kevin Walsh 85.4% Card Raffle winner; Alison Tyquin 8♣

Leonie Smith and Dale Wilford; spoke on "Ignite the Plaza" and volunteers needed to man the art exhibition. $40 for a four course meal, Fri 5 Oct 2012.

Guest Speaker; Senior Constable Mark Scott has 24 years of service with the Police Force, resides locally after moving from Cootamundra. Mark gave us statistics of Shoalhaven Command and how it compares to our local region re domestic violence – assault and percentage of alcohol related incidences.

Wayne Fry, Keith Bennett, Mark Scott, Brian Johnson and Dale Wilford.

End of report.

(Apologies from the editor for missing last week Sue Muir in the guests list, Sue was present at that meeting.)
