Our Rotary Club considers that we should recognise members of the community who provide a service to our Club. Friends of The Rotary Club of Milton-Ulladulla is an informal group of people and organisations associated with the Rotary Club of Milton-Ulladulla in recognition of those members of the public who have carried out or wish to carry out services for our Club.

Guest Speaker Louisa Eastmead, a Sexual Assault Counsellor, recently spoke about sexual assault. Sexual assault is a crime and as a result is a notifiable crime. It may include any unwarranted sexual harassment, unwanted touching, indecent assault, or being drugged or given alcohol for any immoral purpose. Sexual assault involves betrayal of trust an abuse of power over some person. Community awareness is aimed at reducing some of serious threats to the welfare or the safety of individuals.

Michael Mastronardi, John Hozack, Louisa Eastmead and Bill Harris

Louisa spoke of some of the symptoms of abuse such as depression, anxiety, aggressiveness to others. Links House in Nowra is a part of the South Eastern Sydney Illawarra, NSW Health Sexual Assault Services, phone 02 4423 9211.

End of meeting's report.

Thank you Robin Cantrill for tomorrow's Times article.

To all our Rotarians, partners, friends, relatives; BY BOB WHITE

Relay for life 2013. Milton Showground 9.15am Sat 6 April to 10am Sun 7 April. 24 hours of fun.

It's on again this year and I've entered our Rotary team "Rotary Rascals" click here to check the team.

We need team members. Click here to register as one of our team (Rotary Rascals) members.

If we get more than 15 people we could form another rotary team.

The cost to register on the site is $20. The site (click here) explains it all.

Last year was great fun. We had a really good time and there are heaps of other people walking/socialising/performing and visiting. It is a very social event with lots of entertainment.
