RI presidents receive honorary degrees in recognition of Rotary's good works.

RI President Sakuji Tanaka and Past RI Presidents Kalyan Banerjee and Rajendra K. Saboo accepted honorary doctorate degrees, 25 March 2013, on behalf of Rotary International from IIS University in Jaipur, India, in recognition of the service to society provided by Rotary and by the professional, community, and business leaders who join together for action in Rotary clubs around the world.

Past RI Presidents Rajendra K. Saboo and Kalyan Banerjee, and RI President Sakuji Tanaka during the special convocation ceremony.

Ashok Gupta, vice chancellor of the university, said the degrees were bestowed not so much as individual honors but in recognition of the spirit of Service Above Self demonstrated by Rotarians everywhere.

"There are thousands of Rotarians of the world who are contributing ceaselessly to the welfare of mankind," Gupta said. "The honor of these three is symbolic, and through them goes to the organization and those who have made it happen. A large number of Rotarians will be motivated to do good in the world by this singular event."

"Some of the benefits of being a Rotarian"

Article by ARC PDG Ross Skinner

Here is a selection of statements from Rotarians around the world that will help clarify for us why we want to maximise the opportunities that being a Rotarian offers.

- "Being a Rotarian means serving your community, networking, making friends, and building international relationships."
- "Rotary creates the perfect venue for me to give back to the community I live in while enjoying the camaraderie of positive and active individuals."
- "Rotary provides an environment for developing strong friendships and business relationships."
- "A week doesn't go by that I don't learn something new from the speaker at our club or just from working on projects with people. It's an opportunity to grow indefinitely."
- "Leadership is a key focus of Rotary. Through Rotary, you have the opportunity to expand your leadership skills and achieve your goals."
- "Every Rotary club in the world, no matter how big or small, has one thing in common: friendship; and it's from this base of friendship that we serve our community."
- "If you truly want to give back to the community – and to the world at large – you join Rotary. It has an arm that reaches across all barriers. To be part of that is very powerful."
