Report on 17 September 2013 meeting;

Guests: Leonie Smith, Karen Bulbert, Tahlia Cropper, Sian Rielly, and Kody Geraghty from Ulladulla High School, Nathan Orchard from Shoalhaven Anglican School, Ryan Geraghty and Malcolm Orchard.

President Brian Morrison said that the meeting format will change by having weekly guest speakers, Glenn Rowen is organising a calendar, leave of absence for Alison Tyquin, Bike Ride, Driver Education Program will restart soon, the Rotary Club of Nowra "Raffle Calendar Project", (2000 Calendars are sold for $20 each):

- 4 Rotary Clubs are involved
- 4 Charities identified by each Rotary Club
- The Charities each sell 125 Calendars ($2,500 less $250)
- Each Calendar is registered to the purchaser who then goes into a monthly raffle draw.
- 10 months of the year two prizes drawn each month ($200 & $50)
- 2 months of Bonus draws where the prize is $1,000.
- A local photographic competition will be held to select the 13 Calendar photos.
- Nowra will develop and print the calendars. Also they will organise advertising in the Calendars
- Unsold Calendars can be returned to Nowra Rotary.

Our club's involvement will be minimal. One member will need to act as the liaison person between Nowra and Milton Ulladulla. The payoff is that $9,000 will be given to local charities.

Secretary Alison Tyquin; Urana Celebration on 20 Oct, Club's Christmas party will be held at Millards Cottage on 10 Dec, $40 a head, finger food and desert, start at the Rotary park at 6.30pm then 7.00pm at the restaurant

Community Phil Brown thanked the volunteers with the Jumping Castle: John Payne, Bob White, Gordon Young, Dale Wilford, Bill Harris, Glenn Rowen and George Chittick. Phil asked for volunteers for the Lions market in Mollymook, 29 Sept, so far Yvonne Young, Bill Harris, Glenn Rowen and Gordon Young volunteered. Phil received an 'Invitation to volunteers, supporters and community members are invited to attend a Public Meeting to inform the Milton-Ulladulla community of plans to open a "Senior Social RSL Day Club". The meeting will be held on 1 Oct 2013 at 10.00am at the ExServos function room. For further information contact Paul Warren on 4455 7677'.

Youth Yvonne Young thanked Milton-Ulladulla Taxis and Scott Wilkins for driving the RYPEN students to Mogo helped by Trevor Schofield. Yvonne along with the students' parents drove them back.

Leonie Smith spoke on HarbourFeast's advertising with articles in the South Coast Leisure Times, the local Times, flyers, social media, website and thanked John Payne and partner Suzanne for their help.

Rob Powell handed out the Calcutta tickets. 30% of tickets sale will be donated locally to charities, prizes are allocated to 1st, 2nd, 3rd placed horses as well as for last. Helpers are needed along with Brian Johnson to sell tickets at the Rowens Arcade and IGA Milton, 2 weeks before the cup.

Dick Crouch on BOF Ball; number of princesses will be limited to 35 due to limited space of the UHS's hall.

Raffle Winner; Geoff Muir 5♦.

Attendance as per Peter Culham: 60%.

Guest Speakers; our Club sponsored six students to attend the RYPEN Camp, four students spoke on the experience gained by attending the camp at Mogo. Tahlia Cropper, Sian Rielly, and Kody Geraghty from Ulladulla High School, Nathan Orchard from Shoalhaven Anglican School, not present on the night were Tahlya Lee Smith and Molly Cheree Smith Hughes.

Nathan had a good experience, great food, met lots of new people, listened to very interesting speakers and learnt to look out for people with depression. Kody said that the camp was the best experience of her life, played games for example eating ice cream without using hands, listened to inspiring speakers, participated in a talent show, learnt team work skills and in brief described the camp as amazing.

Tahlia said the camp was fun, met lots of people and cannot wait to see them again, participated in a talent quest and attended a suicide talk where she learnt how important it is to talk about how one feels.

Sian added that she had an amazing experience, met and spent the weekend with nice people, learnt how to improve one's memory, participated in lots of activities and listened to inspiring experiences.

End of report.
