Report on 3 Dec 2013 meeting;

Clive Cross toasted Laos and the United Arab Emirates.

President Brian Morrison said that the Shoalhaven City Council offered $39,000 towards a second hand prime mover for the Life Education Van, the Rotary club of Bomaderry donated $15,000 and we have been requested to donate $1,500.

The Club has received a thank you letter from the Soup Kitchen re our $500 donation.

The Hospital Auxiliary Gala dinner was a great success, Denise Fors, Brian Morrison, Jeni and Brian Wilkins attended, but the lack of more Rotarians in attendance was noticeable.

Christmas Trees sale, see the Club's Calendar.

Proceeds of the trees sale will go to the Renal Unit.

Phil Brown; Jumping Castle duties, name were taken for

The Rotary clock photo was taken in Inverloch.

Can you see how nice and effective a similar clock would look on the grounds of the Civic Centre, or the Rotary Park, or the Surf Club or in the main street?
