Report on the Dunn Lewis Centre Bowling - Dinner 8 April 2014 ;

President Brian Morrison welcomed our guests; Rose Brown, Denise Fors, Sylvia Franklin, Elaine Matthews, Sharon Rowen, Alf Rowen and Deb Fondacaro.

- Brian thanked all involved with the 2014 Princess of the Fleet Ball.

Phil Brown described the Princess of the Fleet Ball as a total success, the princesses did us proud, the venue was excellent as well as the catering.

- The Bar collected $3,000.

- A big THANK YOU from Phil to all the organisers and the helpers.

24 Rotarians, Partners and Friends went 10 pin bowling tonight at the Dunn Lewis Centre in Ulladulla.

After bowling we had a meal prepared by Gayle Dunn and served by Jessica Kelly and Karlee Dunn.

The two course was delicious and was enjoyed by all.

The 10 pin bowling winner was Sharon Rowen, well done.

End of report.

I will publish the article below in the 'Rotary On The Move' Newsletter, May 2014 edition.

"For the Record"

Rotary speechwriter Abby Breitstein interviewed Huang in November in Jerusalem, at the Rotary institute for zones 14, 19, and 20.

Extracts from the interview, which appeared in The Rotarian March 2014 edition.

RI president-elect Gary C.K. Huang wants to increase membership so we can match our resources to the world's needs.

THE ROTARIAN: Is there a specific group of potential members Rotary should be targeting?

HUANG: We should focus on alumni – people who were in Group Study Exchange and former Rotaractors. We currently see former Rotaractors who are over 30 as graduates. They should become Rotarians. Rotaractors already have the basic knowledge and experience of Rotary. Many of them go overseas or into military service, or study, and they forget about Rotary or become too busy. We should keep track of these people. If we can sponsor clubs with short meetings and no big meals, that will help keep them. We've been doing this successfully in Taiwan. Past Rotaract presidents and representatives become good Rotarians.

TR: What do you tell people about Rotary to encourage them to join?

HUANG: I tell them that Rotary is special. It's people helping people, and they are having fun, like good friends. Some qualified people say they are too busy to attend weekly meetings. We should tell them that they don't have to attend all the meetings, that they can participate in service whenever they can. And they have to eat anyway, and it is only one meal. I tell them that, when they travel abroad, they can eat well and cheaply at Rotary make-up meetings and be among friendly people who know the local language and customs.

TR: What are the obstacles to recruiting new members?

HUANG: So many people still think this is only a men's club. And some Rotarians think it should be. I ask them, "Are you sure your wife is not qualified? If you don't want your wife in your own club, that's OK. But don't say she is not qualified to be a Rotarian. She can join a different club." These people are too conservative. This is one of the reasons that Japan is losing membership. But Korea, Taiwan, India - it's all changing, now we have more female members. It's the same with younger people. We have to give them the opportunity. They are our future. In a few years, they may be wealthier and more successful than we are.

TR: How confident are you that Rotary can attract new members? Do you have a strategy to make that happen?

HUANG: This coming year, we are going to emphasize that Rotarians should invite their spouses and other family members to join Rotary. If you can't do that, don't tell me you're going to invite somebody else! It is not that difficult to invite people who interact with Rotary. In Australia, at the Canberra institute, I invited two of the speakers. They both joined. One of them was the female CEO of a major bank. When I invited her, she said she wasn't sure if she was qualified. The CEO of a major bank? That's ridiculous. I gave her my pin. I took it right off my jacket, and I inducted her that night.

That's something we should all try – something I have done with success. I invite speakers, or sometimes even guests of honor, at meetings to join Rotary. Many Rotarians think those people are too busy, or too important, that they don't have time for Rotary. But it's wrong to assume that.
