Report on 14 October meeting at Taffie:

President Bob White welcomed 36 attendees and specially our guests: Julia Robertson, Sylvia Franklin, Denise Fors, Jenny Cantrill, Jan Shalhoub, Liz Fondacaro, Maisie Bennett, Judy Cook, John Corrin, Dusit, Wanthanee and Maysa Triyapanjavit.

- Maurie Abbott had an accident,
- Warwick Backhouse was in hospital.

Clive Cross; our Club is in need of a President-Elect for 2015-16, serving as a Club President is an honour and not a chore, please give it some serious thoughts.

Craig Saunders: 2015 Rotary Calendar are available for sale, our Club needs to sell 750.

- If you want a Club shirt, cap or bucket hat, subsidised by our District, please see Craig. Only 10 shirts have been ordered.

Terry Marchello presented the Perpetual Shield and the Trophy to the 2014 student of the year Dusit Triyapanjawit.

Members, partners and friends had an excellent meal at Taffie's restaurant at the TAFE Ulladulla Campus in Green Street, the meal was prepared by the Commercial Cookery students under the supervision of the Head Chef Greg King and served by the Hospitality students under the supervision of Paul Seiden Taffie's Maitre D.

Dusit Triyapanjawit is a Thai born International student who commenced his studies, Certificate III in Commercial Cookery, at the Ulladulla Campus in July 2013 and completed his course in June 2014. Dusit had previous experience in commercial cookery in Thai kitchens but wished to broaden his skills with more Western and European based methods of cookery. Thai cooking involves using a lot of heat but Australian cooking uses far less heat.

Dusit excelled with his studies at Ulladulla TAFE and the results he achieved for both practical and theoretical modules were of some of the highest standards Mr. King has personally witnessed. Dusit was inquisitive at all times and would, in turn, pass on his knowledge of cookery styles from the Thai culture to staff and students.

Taffie's restaurant is a learning experience for students studying at the Ulladulla Campus Certificate II Hospitality and Certificate III Hospitality Commercial Cookery. Our personal thanks to Mr Greg King for background notes for Dusit's story, to Paul Seiden Taffie's Maitre D and to Rob Powell for organising the drinks.

End of report.
