Report on 11 August 2015 meeting by Yvonne Young:

President Clive Cross opened meeting at 6.35pm for Club Assembly and welcomed Julia Brockhaus and Alf Rowen.

President Clive presented Julia with our Club banner.

President Clive announced that our Club had received a letter from Ann Sudmalis MP Federal Member for Gilmore attached to the letter was a copy of a speech that Ann had delivered in Parliament recognizing volunteers and their valuable work in the community.

Cliff Workman International toast was for the School of St Jude in Tanzania which held its first students' graduation this year, the graduating students where the first students to attend the school.

Vocational – Terry Marchello thanked Glenn Rowen for his work whilst Terry was on holidays. Terry is busy organising the Business Awards. Terry is going to organise two tables for Rotary. Please mention you are from Rotary when booking tickets if you wish to be on the Rotary tables.

Leonie Smith spoke on Harbourfeast; sponsors are on board. Letters for store holder are being sent out.

International - Cliff Workman sent around information regarding a photographic completion for mEYE World.

Youth Service RYPEN applications are now open for camp in September.

Club Service Issa Shalhoub thanked Grant and Beck Schultz for hosting Julia.

Julia needs to meet as many members as possible.

Issa then reminded club members about the movie tickets for best attendance every six months.

Issa informed members that Richard Nesbit quest for half-court basketball court has nearly achieved its fundraising goal. Issa then asked members whether members were still interested in supporting the project.

Almoner Julia Robertson isn't well.

Attendance 63%. Raffle won by President Clive Cross – drew the Ace of Spades.

Disaster Aid Australia to attend the club on Tuesday 22nd September this is a partner's night, demonstrating what they do. President Clive has suggested that the club might like to be their representative in District 9710.

Glenn Rowen spoke on an idea of a fundraiser with the Royal Military College Band from Duntroon, the only night that could be booked is Tuesday 3rd November 2015 – Yes Melbourne Cup Day Night. Once Glenn read out to figures on profit etc the club decided to go ahead and book the Royal Military band.

Club Assembly

Glenn Wran spoke on the strategic plan for the club which has been done in part, and the effectiveness to the club and how it would assist in the building a stronger club.

Discussion was then held on the final document. Each director will be offered the part of the strategic plan that is relevant to their directorship for them work on with their committees. As the Board has voted on the strategic plan. Discussion then went on to look at where the club was going and direction. President Clive then discussed the roles and responsibility of the directors.

Brian Morrison suggested forming a subcommittee of interested club members to work on the strategic plan. Idea was agreed by members.

Meeting's Report by Yvonne Young.
