Reports

Finance – Ross Wade – everything is going along swimmingly

Vocational Services – Terry Marchello – TAFFY’s awards night will need to be reconfigured potentially to a luncheon function usually on a Thursday; Terry will advise further.

Community Services Trevor Schofield – is hoping that the Mental Health Bunnings BBQ is successful and become a regular Rotary event making an advanced booking in 2016. Trevor advised that he is negotiating with Council on future working bees for lookouts, the Ulladulla Sign and ‘One Track For All’.

International – Cliff Workman – nothing to report

Youth Service – Yvonne Young reported on behalf of John Goggins that on November 11th there would be a celebration of 25 years of Driver Education at a cost of $25 at the ExServos, more information is to come.

Club Service – Issa Shalhoub – thanked everyone who “hatted-up” for the meeting and reminded us of the upcoming RMC Band recital on Melbourne Cup Day – details below.

Jenny Wilkins updated us on Jindelara progress – Emile’s plan is fantastic – Mayoral Gala raised $16,000 – Lions Book Shop sales raised $54,000 & suggested that we think of them when clearing out our bookshelves.

Glen Rowen – filled in some RMC Band detail; recital is from 6:30 to 8:30PM Melbourne Cup Day, tickets are onsale this week, food & drinks available from the Sand Bar.

Leonie Smith – advised that the Locavore Dinner was shaping up with Citrus Catering on board, Harbourfeast DA was progressing with Council, that Exservos had pulled out of sponsorship, however, the new look team at the Marlin has offered $5,000 sponsorship and that the Sunday Slide event will return Rotary 10% of gross takings.

Phil Brown, by remote control, reminded us of our commitment to Relay-for-Life and that we can enrol on line but most importantly to roll up and cheer the team on at any time during the 24 hours.

Rob Powell reminded us to get out & about selling our Calcutta Tickets and also make sure to return all unsold booklets by Monday before the race to avoid all sorts of complications and recalculations.....

Attendance: 72% Raffle winner; John Hozack who generously committed to re-donating just before drawing the Joker!

Anonymous Judges awarded prizes for hat choices to Jenny Wilkins in a Skippers Cap noting matching colours and coordinated demeanour as runner-up to Glenn Rowen’s outrageous, fully imported, monstrously insured, colourfully symbolic crowning attire.

End of report.
