Report:

President Clive Cross welcomed guests, partners and friends to the inaugural "Rotary Information Night" held at our usual meeting place, the Mollymook Beach Golf Club.

The night was an informal cocktail party with guests mingling with members with several of our executive providing short presentations on the how and whys of joining Rotary.

Invited guests came from a wide cross section of our community with Peter Head, Anthony Nee, Cheryl Elm, Fiona Cochrane, James Stiller, Peter Anderson, Jeanette Blount, Rebecca O'Brien, Stephen Hladio, Virginia Connor and Elizabeth Baker invited.

Members enjoyed the relaxed nature of the evening and the company of other members of the community who appeared keen to understand more about Rotary. Hopefully, this exposure will open opportunities for potential members to join us in our community service because it was clear that the objectives and fellowship of Rotarians was reciprocated on the night with much good humour and conversation.

Coincidentally, our Club reached its 56th anniversary during the week with this achievement being celebrated on the night with a fruit cake made by our much awarded fruit cake maker, Yvonne Young, her superb cake was accompanied by well-matched sauternes provided by a shy and retiring club member with a far too large cellar. The cake cutting ceremony was jointly performed by our longest serving member, Brian Johnson, and our newest member, Rhondda Purtell.

The Golf Club and Staff did a great job with tasty finger food presented on platters on bar tables scattered around the venue making free movement between groups and a relaxed atmosphere with comprehensive slide show running in the background prepared by our technical master of ceremonies Issa Shalhoub.
