Report:

President Clive Cross welcomed guests, Past District Governor, Phillip & Cheryl Whyte, Stephen Hladio, Fiona Cochrane, Alf Rowen, Morag Stewart, Denise Fors, Sharon Rowen, and Jenny Cantrill.

International Director Cliff Workman's international toast was to the Rotary club of Peru.

Club Services Director Issa Shalhoub updated members on the movie premier Eddy the Eagle; the night attracted 104 guests and raised $3720 for Rotary International's Polio fund. Issa thanked Dom Fondacaro and Rob & Jenny Cantrill for their generous contributions to pre-movie nibbles and drinks. And, also Glenn Rowen & Arcadia Cinema owners for their organisation and support.

Issa confirmed, after some discussion that the Youth Exchange opportunity would proceed, however, additional offers of accommodation and outings are welcome.

Since or last meeting, turf layers, Glenn Rowen, Yvonne Young, Clive Cross, and John Hozack represented the Club by assisting with the laying of turf at the Halfcourt Basket Ball Court at Mollymook Beach.

Glenn Rowen won the raffle; however, the prize remains safe for another week with Glenn drawing the 4 of clubs.

President Clive introduced, a very dapper, Past President Brian Morison as our guest speaker, check out the jacket. Brian and Denise, from the sidelines, took us on an amazing pictorial journey of their adventures from their Antarctic Tour.

Images of penguins, (lots and lots of them), layers of poop, ice, snow, whales, icebergs, huts, more ice & snow, and wild seas flashed on the screen as Brian explained the dramatic photos and some of the history of the region.

Many thanks to Brian and Denise for sharing their adventures with us
