Almoner Bill Harris; speedy recovery Sylvia Franklin, Sid Turnbull, Maisie Bennett and Maurie Abbott.

Vocational service Chairperson Rhonda Purtell main objective for the Vocational committee are the Business Awards and workplace visits in the New Year.

IPP presented Rhondda Purtell and Simon Brown with Certificates of Appreciation for their involvement during 2016-17 Rotary Year, Rhondda for her role on the Business Awards Committee and to Simon for maintaining the street banners.

Club Assembly.

Community service Chairperson Emile Jansen objectives for the year once the club gain approval to work in Council Parks; work at Rotary Park and organising seating at the half-court basketball.

International service chairperson Stephen Hladio stated that there would be no toast for NRL teams though continue with the International toast, maintain polio program, also disaster aid and shelter box and other programs connected to International service.

President Phil then open the Club Assembly to the members for a general assembly PP Clive Cross: showed concern of District and lack of involvement. Emile Jansen suggested a publicity officer – new member Bev Nicholas has offered to do Publicity officer. PP Wayne Fry raised a concern of raising sponsorship in the community, and the club needs to look at maybe concentrating on community work instead of fundraising; getting more involved with community projects.

Members came up with a few ideas of possibly of how projects and fundraising ideas for the incoming year. President Phil stated that he was open to any idea just send him an email with suggestions.
