Treasurer Ross Wade; some members are still nonfinancial.

Upcoming Vocational workplace visit to Ulladulla Creative Finishes then dinner provided by Indian Plaza Ulladulla on Tuesday 17th October $20 for a 4-course meal, partners welcomed, numbers ASAP.

PP John Hozack – corrected the typo in the previous article on packing sandbags there was a typo it wasn't Glenn Rowen instead it was PDG Glenn Wran who packed sandbags, sorry about the error. There are more sandbags for filling on Friday 29/9. Rotary Club constitution is being updated, a notice to all members when it is ready for reading, a little light bed time reading for members.

Jenny Wilkins spoke on the Jindelara Respite home which is well under way with construction and donations are still rolling in. Jenny thanked our Club for all our assistance with the project.

Reports from Directors

Vocational Director Rhondda Purtell requested for members to nominate a person for the Max Bayliss award. Business Awards are still the major fundraiser for vocational service and the club.

Community Service a request from the Almoner – please let Bill Harris if you know of an unwell member or partner. A planning committee has been organised for the choral festival in 2018.

International stand in director PDG Glenn Wran stated that the committee would like to be more involved in international project. The club to look at this idea.

Youth Director Stand in John Goggins and committee had a discussion on an Interact club at Ulladulla High School, committee asked what other clubs are doing in our district, or maybe just for the students who are interested, invite them and involve them in club projects.

Club assembly

Dinners out at local restaurants on the 5th Tuesday members stated that the venue needs to be a bigger place if we are going to invite partners. A lively discussion follows with pro & cons of having dinners away from the Golf Club.

Thank you, Yvonne Young for the meeting's report.

End of Report.
