Meeting's Report; 13 February 2018

President Phil Brown opened & welcome members and guests Terry, Lee Dorrell & 2017 BOF Princess Casey Dorrell – guest speaker, Danielle McCauley, Nathan Stanton, Phil Cook, Ian Tibbles, Genelle Gregory, Kim Powell, Rob Tucker and David Muffet.

Phil Presented Tim Gregory with an OBE certificate for his 80th birthday.

Secretary John Payne reported on mail in and out. Have received the grant from the NSW Government under the Premier's grant scheme for the BOF festival.

International Director Stephen Hladio gave the International Toast to the RC of San Francisco for raising funds towards Polio through peddle power.

Bernard Jones mentioned a sportsman's night on the Friday 6th April at the Mollymook Surf Club details to follow. Bernard Jones gave a five-minuter - told of a cricket story from a game he once played, maybe ???, with Henry Lawson.

Vocational Director Rhondda Purtell presented Danielle McCauley from Ulladulla Printing Service with “The Pride of Workmanship Award” in recognition of her Outstanding Professional and Friendly Service to Rotary’s 2017 Community and Business Awards.

PP John Hozack introduced the guest speaker - Casey Dorrell – Casey spoke on her experience as a Princess in 2017. Casey entertained the club on her experience as Princess and stages of BOF. Casey explained that she just wanted to build a float and that’s how she came to enter the BOF Princess Ball. Club members asked various questions on the BOF Princess ball. Casey thanked the club for their efforts in organising the BOF Festival.

David Muffet from South Coast Hospitality (SCH) (formerly A&L Agency) in Camden Street - David said: “South Coast Hospitality has offered to donate ten percent of revenue generated by sales made to the local community during the month of March towards the Rotary Club of Milton-Ulladulla Blessing of the Fleet fund. This will be a perpetual donation and we encourage all businesses in the community to contribute towards this auspicious event that gives so much back to Businesses and our Community. We are truly blessed to live in the wider region of Ulladulla, and it is events and festivals such the Blessing of the Fleet that makes it unique and helps keep the spirit of Community and South Coast Life healthy and alive”.

Thank You Yvonne Young for the meeting’s report.

End of Report.
