President Phil Brown opened meeting welcoming members and guest speaker from the Cancer Council Jarrod Flynn.

- Thank you to all members who assisted in pulling down of stage on Sunday after the Entertainers. Reminder to members to do the online induction at SCC to become a Park care volunteer as the club is now a member.

- President Phil stated that the raffle and auction from the Dr Michael Davy night raised $1,300 the club donated $1,500 to Kid Cancer research. Thanks to all who purchased, donated and assisted in the night.

International toast – Rotary Club of Odessa Ukraine for the contributing so much to the community and International with only 17 members.

Vocational Director Rhondda Purtell that a meeting with Gail Dunn for the business awards has been held. The Business Awards are to be held on Friday 7th September at the Dunn Lewis Centre.

International Director Stephen Hladio reported that tickets for the Royal Military band are now on sale through the ExServo's or on line and that assistance is required on Saturday 2nd June for set up of Civic Centre.

Guest Speaker Jarrod Flynn spoke on a recent community meeting which people attending stated that people didn't know what happen to the money after a fundraising event for the Cancer Council such as Relay for Life. Jarrod explain where the money goes after a fundraising event. Monies raised goes into research, information and support, advocacy, prevention.

Jarrod explained that the Cancer council has no government funding - 95% of money is from fundraising and 5% through benefactors.

The Cancer Council's mission is to reduce the impact of cancer of someone with cancer and their families. Though the main goal of the Cancer Council is working towards a cancer free future.

The Cancer Council is assisting people undertreatment by providing accommodation either in Sydney through Accord group of hotels at a reduced rate or staying at Nowra in the Cancer Care Centre free accommodation. Also provides transport as a gap service to people going to treatment. Peer support program

Cancer Council also provides an Information centre at the Shoalhaven Cancer house at SDMH and a financial assistance $350.00 as a one off for a bill or expenses.

Advocacy ensure that people with cancer are being treated in a respectful manner.

Research - clinical towards a noncancer future and tests that are least invasive.

Relay for life - November 12hr at Ulladulla Civic Centre.

Meeting Report by Yvonne Young, thank you Yvonne.

End of Report.
