President Craig Saunders welcomed members and guests Joe Puglisi, Guest speaker Melinda Loe, Hahepa Ruhe, Murry Conran, Karri, Lucy & Oscar Conran, Jo Jones and Warren Jones.

International Toast Director Stephen Hladio toasted the Rotary Club of Guayaquil Ecuador for Food Plant Solutions.

Stephen reminded members of World Polio day.

Youth report Director Andrea Tucker informed members of $ 9095.00 from the BCN (Business Community Network) Luncheon. Well Done Andrea, great result.

Phil Brown – Relay for Life; our team is called Rotary Rascals. The link to our team's fundraising page is: <https://www.cancercouncil.org.au/relayforlife/teams/EI00056286>

Secretary Ali Tyquin received an invite for a thank you morning tea at the Ulladulla Civic Centre for volunteers hosted by SCC.

Members reports Tony Fondacaro informed members of a social night on Saturday October 27th to the FABFOUR cost $25.00 at Mollymook Bowling Club.

Tony gave a short catch up with a recent trip to Hawaii and the Rotary Club of Honolulu he visited.

Tony spoke on a new lighter Jumping Castle.

President Craig had the honour of Inducting two new members Jo Jones and Murry Conran. Welcome both and your family to the Rotary Club of Milton-Ulladulla and to the Rotary family.

Guest speakers Melinda and Hohepa (Joe) from Kotahi Tourism

Start the presentation with a welcome to country and acknowledgement of the Murramarang people, traditional owners of the land in our area.

Melinda and Joe then spoke on the tours they have conducted in Sydney including consulting on Aboriginal tours, combining white Australian and Aboriginal history tours. Through their company they have been able to assist Aboriginal communities in Australia to set up tours in their area. Kotahi tours have received a number of Tourism awards since starting up in 2015.

Kotahi Tourism have now started Conjola tours, conducting tours on heritage, wildlife, environment, fishing holiday and destination history. There are activities for the children and seasonal interaction. Spoke on the importance of Thomas Kendall and his contribution to history in both in New Zealand, Australia and the local area.
