Meeting's Report for 19 March 2019

Junior Acting President PP Trevor Schofield welcomed members and guest Tim Dreverman.

A minute silence was observed for the victims of the New Zealand terror attack.

Vocational report PP Wayne Fry informed members that the current Business Awards committee are unable to run the Business Awards, though the current committee are willing to work with the new committee running the Business Awards in 2019.

Tony Fondacaro asked members attending the Barefoot Lawn bowls be at Mollymook Beach Bowling Club at 4.30pm.

PP Phil Brown informed members that the organising for Blessing of the Fleet is all on track.

Almoner Bill Harris informed members that Maisie Bennett, Elaine Mathews and Zilma Turnbull are all home from hospital. Reg Sawyer is still at David Berry Hospital ongoing rehabilitation. Keith Bennett ongoing appointment at Wollongong Hospital.

Guest Speaker Tim Dreverman Events/Marketing Manager at Willinga Park.

Prior to working at Willinga Park, much of Tim's early years was spent at Agricultural Shows on the weekends. Tim's father was the ringmaster at Cooma Show.

Tim is the youngest Announcer at a Commonwealth Royal show. Tim holds great memories of early days at Sydney Royal Easter Show and winning the Fancy Dress competition on his sister's horse. Tim then moved into Show jumping for a time.

Though the opportunity to announcer came at Pambula Show where Tim was given the microphone and announced the six-bar competition. Tim applied for the announcer's position at Brisbane Royal where he started announcing in 2011 HR at Brisbane Royal. Tim has since gone onto a announce at every Royal show in Australia. Tim has also enrolled in University 3 times attending O Week each time though decided it wasn't for him. Tim won RAS Rural Achievers in 2011.

Started work at Willinga Park in October 2018 after meeting Terry Snow at a horse function. At Willinga park the aim is to change the perception of how horse events are viewed and though keeping the pleasure of the horse. The Club has been invited to the Golden Buckle Camp Drafting the rich Camping Drafting event in the world. The Golden Buckle being held on the weekend 16th – 18th May at Willinga Park.

Thank You Yvonne Young for the meeting's report.
