Report on meeting of 29 October 2019

Ian Tibbles welcomed members and guest Wendy Kilborn, Dale Wilford's guest.

President Steve Hladio shared with members the Charter of our Club and thanked Ian Tibbles for his work on restoring it.

Andrea Tucker informed members of the recent Business Community Network luncheon and how everyone had a great time. Andrea and Ross are still working out the final figure for monies raised on the day, which will be over $3,000, well done and thank you Andrea.

Almoner all well; Dick Crouch going well.

PP Dale Wilford spoke on Tallimba and how it is proceeding. One of the organisers for the event Wendy Kilborn spoke on the Drought relief and how people are able to assist through donations of water, care package, and putting items into a shoe box for a kid for Christmas. Wendy has been quite overwhelmed with the donations and offers of help/assistance from people in the area.

Guest Speakers Ian and Annette Stevens from the Milton Rural Fire Service (RFS) spoke on the RFS how the (RFS) operates in the various levels of command including Group 6 catering group. Ian informed there are over 75,000 volunteers in NSW.

Ian spoke on different areas of the RFS including how the RFS are working with Fire and Rescue NSW and the different types of vehicles that are used to fight fires. Ian spoke on the two recent fires in the area informed members of there has been over 70 call outs for the Milton Crew in the last year. Milton crew have been assisting in the other fires within NSW and Vic.

Ian asked members to have a fire plan and keep their property cleaned up in case of a fire. Ian stated that the RFS is hosting education days for the community to attend. The Milton RFS are keen to be involved in community events.

Thank you, Yvonne Young for the meeting's report.

Thank you, Avril Pryor for the Local Express article regarding the High School Captains.
