27 April 2021 Meeting;

President Leonie welcoming members and guests Adam Gowen – Guest speaker, Liz (Lee) and Jaimee Soo NYSF student 2021, Robert Baldwin and Wendy Shipton.

Vocational Director Bernie spoke on nomination for Apprentice/Trainee of the Year are now open. Bernie reminded members to start thinking about workplace visits.

Community Service Director Yvonne informed members that if the figures are correct that the money spinner has paid for itself and a reminder of the Bunning BBQ next Saturday 8th May 2021.

Chairperson of the Blessing of the Fleet Ball Clare Nyholm spoke on the change of date for the Ball, the new date is now the Saturday 11th September 2021 at the Civic Centre.

Almoner Bill Harris informed members everyone is well. Brian and Jeni Wilkins, Maisie Bennett and Tim Gregory are all going well.

President Leonie asked members who is available to assist with the bar on the night of the SESA awards Wednesday 9th June 2021. Updated members of the progress of the Bushfire recovery money, President Leonie spoke on a recent meeting with Julie from Barnardos and people requiring assistance from the Currowan Bushfire.

Rotarian Wendy Shipton and daughter of Brian Johnson spoke on her club in Georgetown TAS, 30 members and their main area for fundraising is catering which they have a BBQ van. Wendy updated members on Brian's condition in Hospital. Brian is unable to return home so family have made the difficult decision to place Brian in full time care. This isn't an easy decision to make and our thoughts are with all of the Johnson family as Brian moves to full time care.

NYSF student Jaimee Soo; thanked our Club for their sponsorship and support of the NYSF. Presenting Youth Director Avril Pryor with a thank you gift. Jaimee then spoke on the challenges of attending the Forum online and 3 days of face-to-face learning. Jaimee showed members how NYSF was conducted over zoom, live crossing to Switzerland and WA for some of the lecturers, still having breakout sessions and still covering all topics either face to face or over Zoom. Jaimee spoke on teaming up with two other participants for a challenge and coming in the top five with their idea.

Guest Speaker Adam Gowen – Centre Manager for Country Universities Centre. Adam said the Centre will open in Ulladulla aiming for August 2021. Opening an opportunity to attend any University in Australia. The country Universities centre first opened in Comma in 2013 and now has 12 locations across VIC, QLD and NSW. Creating opportunities for anyone including youth to continue on with higher education whilst still being able to live and work in their home town. The centre is able to run exams for all Universities. Providing support for Uni students including printing, tele conference and hot desk will be available for students to use. The centre is operated by a local Board. The centre will provide assistance for students throughout their Uni journey. Giving opportunity to further advance education for all professional people.
