President Tony Fondacaro welcomed members and guests Fiona Fanagan and Edward Bowles to the meeting.

Reports:

Secretary Beck Cameron informed members of information received by the club from District on grant money available from District for projects relating to the Black summer Bushfires. Community Christmas party on Saturday 4th December at the Rotary Park, members to let Beck know if anyone they know would like a invite from Santa.

PP Leonie Corrin-Smith spoke on the Lion's Club running the New Year's Eve fireworks, more detail to follow.

Blessing of the Fleet Ball Chairperson Clare Nyholm informed members that there are 33 princesses and partners all excited about the ball, rehearsals start at the end of November, interview are the week before the Ball.

President Tony reminded members of the Christmas party/Changeover coming up on Sunday 5th December names are needed. Bunnings BBQ are back.

Youth Report given by Louise Garrett: District have cancelled both RYPEN and RYLA for this year and the Youth Exchange program is returning in a few years. There is good news for the Youth committee the sponsorship prizes for the local school's presentation days are been given in vouchers from Harbour bookshop.

GUESTS SPEAKERS

Edward Bowles Consulting Engineering spoke on his travels as a consult Engineer and travelling to countries including third world countries.

Edward has been a Consulting Engineer for 40years and has found it to be rewarding work, which has taken Edward to Central Asia, Cambodia, Thailand just to name a few.

Next week Edward will be travelling to Timor-Leste to assist in preparing a 5-year plan for the Government for road construction, making sure the plan meets international standard.

Edward enjoys travelling so being consulting Engineer works well for Edward. Though Edward is looking at retiring in the near future.

Fiona Fangan Solicitor has recently moved to the area from Adelaide and works at Hozack & Clisdell Solicitors. Fiona spoke on her journey so far from Cowra, University days in Wollongong.

Fiona spoke on her husband Richard's journey from being a Mining Engineer to recently finishing studies to be a doctor.

Fiona spoke on her COVID journey with a new born baby, having to isolate/quarantine after making a mad dash back to Adelaide before the borders closed. Decided to return to NSW to be closer to their families, purchasing their home over FaceTime.

Thank you, Yvonne Young, for the meeting's report and the photo.
