Meeting's Report; 5 March 2024

Vice President PP Phil Brown welcomed the members and guests visiting Rotarians P. Barbara Edwards and Louise McGilvray, from the Rotary Club of Macarthur Sunrise D9675, Richard Zuber (guest of Tim Trescowthick), Shannon Burchmore, Kylie Fergusson and Jason Russell.

Tony Fondacaro gave the Club Service report.

Secretary Issa Shalhoub; Board Meeting on Monday 11 March,

RYPEN, unfortunately our club is not sponsoring a student, PLEASE members keep that program in mind for the next RYPEN camp and also for any youth programs. Our youths are the future of our community and country.

BOF would like us to erect their flags on the Highway, Ian Tibbles and Guy Porter offered to help Simon Brown.

Vocational Director Yvonne Young; thank you to the members who helped at the Milton Show Steak Bar.

a bus has been booked for the Blue Scope Trip, lunch at a hotel, 11 May 2024, our club has received an SOS email asking for nominations for the RYPEN weekend, 56 students are attending.

Treasurer Ed Zonneveldt on finance; all good,

Our club donated $1,000 to the Community Resource Centre, as agreed last week

- POSITIONS VACANT: President Nominee,

and an Attendance Officer, please volunteer and let Ed know.

International Director Tim Trescowthick; for the Youth Exchange we have two host families, more required, please spread the word, not necessarily a Rotary family.

Tim is looking into a Polio movie premiere.

Community Director Geoff Johns; a Sunday 24 March BBQ roster was circulated,

Park Care helpers received an email; an online induction,

21 March Bunnings Family night, Clive Cross volunteered, but he was the only one, Rotary will not be represented.

The camper van sale will go online.

Phil Brown thanked the helpers with setting up the stage; John Payne, John Hozack, Geoff Johns, Tim Trescowthick and Ian Tibbles.

Phil attended a Suicide Prevention meeting, as it is on Crown Land, Rotarians should be able to help maintain the area, as we do with the Rotary Park.

Binoculars to be installed soon, and signs with the authorisation of Lifeline.

Wayne Fry on the MHERV, Wayne received a thank you email as well as stats from Susanne Thompson, MHERV Operations Manager, North Lake Mac Rotary, Satellite Club of Warners Bay, 84 community members attended the van, including 15 women. Great success.

Milton Show Beer (54 entries) and Wine (51 entries) tasting; Beer winner, for the second year in a row Greg Bradburry and Wine winner was Chris Nikolovski. Wane thanked all the sponsors.

The show was a great financial success.

President of RC of Macarthur Sunrise, Barbara Edwards has been a Rotarian for 27 years, fourth time President, 19 members, nearly half women and half men, meet every Wednesday 6:45am at a cafe, the club is involved with all the various Youths Program, 24 hours walk for cancer support, DV, disabilities, Dolly P the Koala which raises funds for End Polio and the Dolly Parton Imaginary Library. Barbara and Louise exchanged Banners

Yvonne Young spoke on the making of a fruit cake, rich and boil ones, Yvonne won the first prize and going later in the year to the Group Final.

Yvonne's journey with the Milton Show started over 40 years ago, Crochet and Knitting Stewardess and now is a Senior Vice President.

Yvonne also spoke on her Rotary journey which started in 2011 and has been involved ever since with different Board positions.

Raffle winners; thank you Yvonne Young for donating your Milton Show winning Fruit Cakes (rich and boil); Geoff Johns, Guy Porter, Dale Wilford and Robin Cantrill.

End of report.
