14 May 2024

VP Phil Brown acknowledged the Traditional Owners of Country and paid respect to Elders past and present. Phil welcomed the members and all the guests; Anne-Maree Kitchener, Diane Willett and Phil McDonald.

Vocational Director Yvonne Young said that the BlueScope Steel trip has been a disappointment; only 6 will go, the bus will be cancelled and will travel by car pooling.

2 June is the new date for the Budawang BBQ.

Land Council has asked to hire the Jumping Castle for NAIDOC, cannot oblige as it is not ours anymore. We might offer them our BBQ and help cooking.

Leanne Brook, from the Land Council would like to address our club.

Yvonne has been appointed as RYPEN District 9705 Chair, well done.

Yvonne is planning for the local Youths programs, 2024-25, during her year as Youth Director.

VP Phil Brown spoke on last night's Board meeting, the drapes requested by the Civic Centre, Ian Tibbles, Geoff Johns, Guy Porter and Brian Morrison will help.

Driver Ed has missed out on a grant; Craig Saunders might help.

President Nominee is Geoff Johns, congratulation and thank you for accepting that role.

Club Foundation will be looked after by Brian Morrison, thank you Brian.

On behalf of our treasurer Ed Zonneveldt, who was absent tonight, said that all our accounts are healthy.

Lighthouse being on Crown land, Rotarians can look after the maintenance.

Phil is surveying the Lighthouse stage 2 masterplan, binoculars and a new signage are needed, thank you Phil.

Louise Garrett, talked about the BOF Festival, BOF Ball and Rotary's involvement in the future.

Secretary Issa Shalhoub thanked Jo Jones for the excellent Trivia Night, hopefully will see more in the future and maybe open it to community members.

Another thank you goes to Jason Russell who has put up the banners tonight, without being asked.

The club needs a list of the members who have an RSA and their expiry date. And those members who wish to get one, names, expiry date and licence number are needed. An email will be sent out.

An email was sent out regarding the fundraising movie, to End Polio, at Arcadia cinema on 28 May 2024. PLEASE tell everyone about it.

è Attendance; Louise Garrett (our attendance officer) is still not receiving all apologies, and has to guess attendance numbers to give to our caterer, simply not fair.

è You can ring Louise, send a text message or email her.

è If your attendance is in doubt, please apologise and if you turn up, the caterer will not mind extras. IT IS THAT SIMPLE.

A request has been received for the installation of the white drapes at the Civic Centre, Ian Tibbles, Geoff Johns, Guy Porter and Brian Morrison will help, THANK YOU.

SESCA is on Wednesday 12 June at the DLC, let us all attend, cost per person to be advised soon.

Tuesday 11 June's meeting has been cancelled to encourage members to attend the SESCO night.

Three names of prospective new members, approved by the Board, will be circulated for members' notification and will also be emailed.

Issa gave the Club Service report.

International Director Tim Trescowthick; the club couldn't get hosts families for an Exchange student.

28 May; movie night at Arcadia for End Polio, please spread the word.

Tim had the movie flyers to distribute, Louise Garrett and Craig Saunders will help distribute the flyers.

Community Director Geoff Johns is looking for the Tagging machine.

Supercheap BBQ was a success, Geoff Johns, Simon Brown, Jeff Franklin, Phil Brown, Issa Shalhoub, Dom Fondacaro and Bev Nicholas helped. The club collected $282 as donations from the community members for Rotary.

As well as $700 from Supercheap for setting up and cooking, Thank you Geoff for your help.

BBQ rosters will be sent out.

Lake Conjola recovery team asked us to put on two BBQs on 18 and 20 May and will give us $1,000 for both days. They thought of Rotary's help first.

John Hozack said that there will be a farewell get together for Ian Tibbles at the Star hotel, Friday 10 May.

John Payne spoke on his trip to Tasmania and the Camino walk, which he did about five years ago.

End of report.
