Meeting 10 September 2024

President Ed Zonneveldt welcomed members and guests; Max Monahan, Kinga Monahan and Samantha Kneeshaw.

Issa Shalhoub gave the Club Service report.

Youth Director Yvonne Young thanked Samantha Kneeshaw (UHS teacher) for her help in opening the door for our club to help the youths.

RYPEN applications are now open.

Please spread the word about the upcoming RYLA.

Vocational Director Craig Saunders is working on an Alter Bar dinner night, mid Nov, need a minimum of 25 to 30 attendees, degustation (6 courses) with or without wine.

TAFE's Stuart Bellingham said that catering is back at TAFE, we will have lunch there, for members, partners, friends, depends on numbers, we will present a Catering Student of the Year on the day.

A BBQ will be organised for the Driver Ed and invite the sponsors.

Community Director Geoff Johns will email all, re the RSA course, cost $185, Board to see if members can get a reduced fee. Geoff thanked Wayne Fry, Ed Zonneveldt, Jason Russell, Yvonne Young and Geoff Johns for their help at the Community Expo. Attendees were given a show bag, perhaps we should have business cards to give out. Geoff Johns, Phil Brown, Tony Fondacaro will attend the District Conference, as well as Pres Ed and Yvonne Young. Work on the Cancer Houses is complete, thanks to Craig Cameron, Simon Brown, Jeff Franklin, Brian Morrison and Geoff Johns. Geoff urged members to help when required.

Almoner Bill Harris said that Louise Garrett is not well, best wishes.

President Ed Zonneveldt received a thank you note for our donation in memory of Terry Snow.

Ed will attend a Fun Run meeting in two days.

Our club received an email from Cate Morrison's father, thanking our club for hosting his daughter.

Yvonne Young introduced the guest speaker, Max, and was thanked by Dale Wilford.

Max Monaghan is a year 11 student at the UHS, he is 17-year-old, Max will be attending, over 8 days, the NYSF (National Youth Science Forum) and would like to pursue a career in Civil Engineering. Max is fond of maths, was born in NZ, loves surfing and has a parttime job at a bakery where he works in its warehouse and as a kitchen hand. Members wished Max all the best in his future.
