Craig is organising an RSA course at the Molly Bowling Club, need 10 participants, six and half hours course, our club to discuss subsidising, at the 7th of October Board Meeting.

International Director Tim Trescowthick said that his committee is organising the Charity Poker Run's route.

Environment Director Craig Cameron reminded members to bring their bottle lids for Lids For Kids.

New Eyes For Africa eye hospital will open in Nov.

Julie Tyers will address the club, next year, via Zoom.

Craig attended the Fun Run meeting; need to check with the council as an area of the run will use public roads.

President Ed Zonneveldt UHS presentation is on 16 Dec.

Ed met with Maria Lavelle and transferred all funds from Horizon Bank to the BOF.

Maria will attend a club meeting to officially and publicly do the handover.

Phil Brown introduced the guest speaker, Cathryn Burns, and was thanked by Simon Brown.

Cathryn Burns, Ulladulla library Customer and Community Resources Manager, ex teacher, said that she also looks after the Milton library. Our libraries offer free services, from books in many languages, newspapers, movies, in a comfortable and quiet atmosphere. Libraries offer story time for kids, school holidays programs and HSC students get together to study.

Cathryn presented the members with a show bag, containing a flash drive, pen, information leaflets ... and an application form to join the library, which can also be done online.

There are five libraries in the Shoalhaven, you can borrow up to 30 items, books, CDs, DVDs, magazines and book discs.

The library has digitised news and reviews, provides free access to ancestry.com, in the Nowra library you can digitise your VHSs.

Information supplied by Cathryn were in the shape of a quiz, with chocolate bars as rewards for correct answers, all members were very impressed with Cathryn's presentation as most didn't know what is on offer at the libraries, thank you Cathryn.

Lucky Door Prize: John Payne.

Raffle winner: Dale Wilford.

End of Report.
