Meeting's report; 15 October 2024

President Ed Zonneveldt welcomed the members and guest speakers Matt Berry and Emile Dupont-Louis from the UHS.

Club Service Director Tony Fondacaro gave his report.

Secretary Issa Shalhoub the new banners are ready, Simon Brown will pick them up from UPS and Louise Garrett offered to help Simon in installing them, thank you Louise and Simon.

TAFE lunch is full, but Altar Bar can have more attendees.

Vocational Service Director Craig Saunders said that the Melbourne Cup Sweep will be at the Mollymook Bowling Club on Monday 5 Nov, please help to sell tickets, $5, 10, 20 and 100 sweeps, with 40% of the profit to go to youth services in our area, hopefully around 3 to $4,000.

Each member will be given a sheet of the sweep to try to sell. Please, be at the Mollymook Bowling to sell tickets and perhaps have a meal.

Will need 6 helpers and names for dinner. Everyone who pays will get a horse.

TAFE lunch, just about full. Our club will make a presentation to the course student of the year.

Altar Bar attendance is filling up nicely, still open for more numbers. Bus pick-up, 4 places, will be organised.

Anne-Maree Kitchener spoke on the Driver Education program, Marulan is no longer available, will go to Wakefield Park instead. 49 students will attend this Thursday and 45 the following week.

Tim Trescowthick will talk to the students on bike riding and safety.

Driver Ed received $10,000 from the IMB Foundation.

International Director Tim Trescowthick; Charity Poker Run is looking for sponsors.

Tim has received an invitation from the Turkish Ambassador to attend Proclamation of Pakistan.

Community Service Director Geoff Johns; SCC Shoalhaven Heads Botanic Gardens Christmas BBQ, BYO chair and cutlery. Remembrance Day, would like to see many members attend, 11 November at 11am at ExServos.

Issa has designed a sign to display at coffee shops re Lids4Kids. 2 businesses so far are onboard to collect lids.

Phil Brown advised that Apex need our stage this Friday at 12:30pm, helpers needed.

Almoner Bill Harris; past member John Coburn has moved to Arcare, Lynn Chittick is having an operation, Rob Powell is looking fine, Brett Lawson, son of past member Bob Lawson has passed away.

Tony Fondacaro introduced the guest speakers and were thanked by Anne-Maree Kitchener.

Matt Berry and Emile Dupont-Louis are UHS' Student Support Officers, they are the link between services and young people, Emile was a social worker and Matt was a highway patrol policeman, after the fires and COVID-19, every school had to have one Student Support Officer, at UHS we have two, thanks to the Terry Snow Foundation.

Both are looking forward to the boxing fitness program, helped by Phil McDonald, using boxing to achieve mental and physical fitness, a healthy life style and not to teach the student how to fight. Youths can support Rotary say by helping with our BBQs. They spoke on phone banning at school, how it helps students to communicate and play ball games during recess, Emile and Matt help stop bullying at school and on social media, both help students to use phone apps and with surf coaching.

Lucky Door Prize; Dale Wilford.

Raffle winners; Brian Morrison.

End of Report.
