Youth Yvonne Young said the NYSF students will address our club in January and UHS High Tea invitation for 3 Dec at 11:00am.

Almoner Bill Harris thanked Louise Garrett for getting him to the DLC and Dale Wilford for taking him home. Weekly helpers are required PLEASE

Guest speaker Eileen Scriven, resides in Milton, Eileen addressed our club the first time in 21 June 2011, started her life in Wyalong, one of eight siblings, as a youngster made jam to sell, moved to Westmead then back to Wyalong, made and sold preservatives, moved to Lake Cargelligo and lived on a farm, at one stage she had 150 turkeys to sell for Christmas and finally moved to our area in 1982, has four daughters and spoke on her cake decoration.

Eileen spoke on how she is self-taught, enjoys cake decoration and is a multiple winner for her cake decorating at the Sydney Royal Easter Show, twice Australian National Champion in cake decoration, has collected 10 awards at Sydney, she found her earliest inspiration in The Australian Women's Weekly Complete Book Of Cake Decorating, her work appeared in several magazines over the years and enjoys working with fondant, rather than almond paste, she uses a medical hypodermic syringe to do the most intricate lacework. An excellent and humorous presentation, THANK YOU Eileen.

Luck Door Prize; Geoff Johns. Raffle winner; Dale Wilford.
