Workplace visit to AJS Machinery, THANK YOU to Dale Wilford for organising the visit, thank you to Annie Brown, Simon Brown and Tony Fondacaro for cooking, also Thank you to Craig Saunders for picking up the salads and sweets from the Dunn Lewis Centre, thank you to the DLC, and finally to Oliver Smith, Brooke and Grace Smith, their parents Jenny and John Smith for the talk and their hospitality.

Issa was told by Oliver that AJS stands for Andrew – John or Jenny – Smith.

AJS sell agricultural equipment, machinery and technology, provide support, provide the best solution for the buyer's equipment needs and leverage our experience for continuous improvement, warranty, technical advice and finance if required.

AJS provides Agricultural Chemical Handling Technology, Liquid Fertiliser Application Technology and Planter Performance.

AJS sell Australia wide and New Zealand. Oliver lived in Sydney, Queensland and now with the family moved to Milton.

Oliver has a university degree, worked for John Deere Australia and now works for them, travels for installation and problem solving and most of his work can be done over the internet.
