7 April 2026 Report

President Geoff Johns opened the meeting, welcomed members and Diane Willett, Debbie and Don Buscall.

Issa Shalhoub gave the club service report and the secretary one; Issa thanked Yvonne Young for taking notes of two meetings in his absence and distributed the Rotary magazine and the ShelterBox one.

Bernard Jones said that the profit from the BOF bar will be around $1,000.

Phil Brown will send out rosters.

John Payne, the Royal Military Band concert is progressing well, show will start at 7:00pm and canopies will be served at 6:00pm.

Yvonne Young; the Ulladulla High School is fine to run with MUNA, Science Engineering organised by the Rotary Club of Nowra, will be held at UHS on 26 May, and 6 to 8 volunteers will be needed on the day before.

Bill Harris announced that Avril Pryor is applying to join the RC of Moss Vale.

Pres Geoff, profit from a Bunnings BBQ will be donated to the Little Free Food Pantry Ulladulla. A reminder about ANZAC Day and participation.

It will be nice for members to attend a stage setup and pack up to see how it is done.

Dale Wilford, Bernard Jones, Phil Brown, Louise Garrett were thanked a few times for their effort with the BOF bar.

Pres Geoff Inducted Don Buscall, in the presence of Debbie Buscall, to our club and to the Rotary family. All members and partner welcomed Don for his Induction. Don was presented with the Rotary pin and Debbie and Don received their dinner badges. WELCOME.

Don Buscall gave a summary of his life, Debbie and Don met at the Parramatta High School, Don did an Engineering degree and Debbie a Bachelor of Education.

Don had a cadetship with Main Roads, went to Goulburn, then Port Macquarie and back to Sydney. Don worked for ten years at Fairfield council, then joined a private firm. Don did a Master degree in Business and Debbie did a doctorate degree in Philosophy, and worked for forty years in the Catholic school system being in charge of forty schools.

Don went into consultancy, working two days a week, they bought a house then a land where they built a house locally, they have two sons and seven grandkids, love golf and travelling. WELCOME Debbie and Don to the Rotary family.

Issa Shalhoub for his Rotary 5 minter showed two videos, MUNA and the Four Way Test.

The lucky door prize went to Bill Harris. The raffle winner was Jeff Franklin.
