President Geoff Johns welcomed, Les Rash and our guest speaker Sol Bannura. Money Spinner raised $392. We need a team of four to run the Bunnings BBQs.

PE Tim Trescowthick gave the Club Service report.

Tim was present when the Entertainers made donations; $5,000 to the Driver Edu program.

Tim presented on our behalf ten $25 to the Little Free Food Pantry.

Issa Shalhoub asked if we want to have the Lotto 45 Club.

As from July; apologies and attendance numbers to MAX LAKE.

Bernard Jones profit from the RMC Band $5,425.60. $2,000 for Eyes for Africa, $2,000 for our future events.

Yvonne Young; interviewed the NYSF students, helped by Tim Trescowthick.

Craig Saunders asked members to support businesses who support our club: FOXYS, HAYDEN'S PIES, OCEANVIBE, ULLADULLA MCDONALD'S, CUP AND CAKE, CARLO'S ITALIAN RESTAURANTE AND MOLLYMOOK BEACH HUT.

And would like all members to think of the Rotary's 4 Way Test.

John Hozack; Stephen Hladio is responsible for our profit from the RMC Band, to invite at the Changeover or to a meeting. Masonic Hall in Milton is available to purchase or lease. To donate $500 to the polar plunge, Jason Russell will plunge.

Sol Bannura, our guest speaker loves fishing, is an author and a teacher. Sol is feeling his age and is modifying - redefining his fishing, he can hand catch prawns, makes glass lures, which are better for the fish and the environment as plastic ones will pollute, and questions why catch lots of fish. Sol generously offered his books to the members.
