A big thank you to Ali for your assistance in making the Mental Health Hat night enormous success.

Hat Night Rotarian Ali Tyquin spoke on the serious side of mental illness – there are many types of mental illness that effects 1 in 5 Australians. We are making a difference by having a Hat Day (Night) by raising funds and awareness of mental illness.

Winners of the Hat Night were Best Female Hat was Annie Brown, Best Male hat was Glenn Rowen Sexiest hat was Jenny Cantrill and the encouragement award hat prize to John Hozack.

Guest speaker Tony Hardman is a representative on the Shoalhaven Sports Board. Tony informed members that at the last meeting Shoalhaven Sports Board, where Senior Council workers attended the meeting they put forwarded a proposal that a fee would be charged on sporting field per head per player per season. The fee proposed would be $30.00 for an adult and $20.00 for children.

At the current moment the Board is busy contacting all sporting organisations and associations regarding proposal of Council in charging sporting organisations and associations the fees.

Tony asked members to please put your thinking caps on to overcome this proposal of council if you can come up with any ideas please let Tony know.

Clive Cross' operation went well and he will spend a few weeks in recovery, 12 Oct 2017. Clive had two bypasses, as per Clive's daughter Robyn and Catheryn Ambrose.

Thank you, Yvonne Young for the meeting's report.

End of Report.
