Meeting Report; 14 November 2017, by Yvonne Young

President Phil Brown welcomed members & guests Tom & Jamie Dale and the guest speaker Vikki Sansom from Bunnings Ulladulla.

Glenn Rowen spoke on the 'Murder on the Orient Express' film night were 122 people attended. A big thank you to Bev Nicholls and the club raised $1480 which means that $4,400 to Polio.

Attendance Officer Ed Zonneveldt stated that attendance was 62%.

Almoner Bill Harris; Clive Cross, Keith Bennett are going OK, Maisie Bennett has been in hospital though is now home. PP Rob Healey has been diagnosed with dementia our thoughts are with the family.

PP Tim Gregory gave a 5 minuter on a recent trip to Portugal and cruising up the Douro River stopping at towns and winery along the way even tasting a green wine very young though tasted wonderful. Tim recommended if you ever have the chance visit Portugal as the tourist haven't found it yet.

Vikki Sansom; the local Bunnings is surrounded by National and Marine parks and participates & builds relationships with the community while supporting non-for-profit groups & organisations, Vikki said.

Vikki spoke on what a fantastic and generous community we live in. Vikki gave a quick rundown on her involvement in the community has been very involved in the including scouts, P & C Ulladulla Public School, Orchid club. In the year 2016–17 Bunnings has contributed to 267 in store and community projects, 60 external projects, 109 community BBQs and many product and gift card donations. Community projects include Mullala, community transport garden project, assisting with the local schools on sustainability, recycle, garden, products worm farms including creating a hands artwork at Milton Public School in the special education area. Vikki is known as 'sox' to her fellow team members and to the students at the local, theme days, dress up days, including social nights the team at Bunnings support projects including white ribbon day and loud shirt day.

Vikki said that if you wish for your organisation to be involved please don't hesitate write a letter with a letterhead outlining your request. The request is discussed between Vikki and the store manager.

Something is always happening at Bunnings. Bunnings hold 5 major fundraising events during the year including Australia Day which benefits the Emergency service including fund raising for SES. DIY workshop, BBQs are held any day of the week, the BBQs are always booked on the weekend. Community organisation included the Black Dog organisation, Murramarang Men's Shed raise funds for their projects.

Bunnings have been involved with the Blessing of the Fleet for many years. Vikki then informed member that Ulladulla Bunnings was the winner of store of the year southern area and then named national store of the year for 2016-17. Congratulations Bunnings.

Thank you, Yvonne Young, for the meeting's report.

End of Report.
