New Member Talk was delivered by Judith Sloan, born and raised till was 16 in Brisbane, then moved to Byron Bay where Judith learnt to surf.

Judith then moved to Sydney, Coffs Harbour, Sydney to be close to her sister, then Central Coast where she got a job with a Law firm, lost her father and moved back to Sydney to live close to her siblings and joined a legal firm.

Judith met her ex-husband, had two sons after 17 years met Bob and after the divorce Judith and Bob married. They had outback safaris, moved to Hornsby in 2000 while holidaying down our area they bought a property. After a trip around Australia they moved to Narrawallee, they both started a cleaning business and after 14 years Judith retired two years ago.

Judith made lots of friends and is involved with Meals on Wheels, bushwalking, is the secretary of the Show Society and now is a Rotarian.
