Meeting's Report for 12 March 2019

President Craig Saunders opened the club assembly welcoming members.

President Craig said that the main topic of conversation for the Club Assembly is fundraising ideas for the next 12 months to 3 years.

President Craig thanked members for playing tennis-social get together event on Sunday, with over 25 Rotarians, partners and family attended making the tennis day an annual event with the Lions Club and inviting the APEX Club for next year event.

ANZAC Day President Craig and Yvonne will lay the wreath at the Dawn Service and PPs Clive Cross and Brian Morrison to lay the wreath at the Milton Service.

President Craig informed members of the club have expressed an interest in hosting Youth exchange student.

President Craig sent out a HUGE THANK YOU to Rotarians Gareth Davies (proprietor of Brush 'n Broom), Ian Tibbles and non-Rotarian Craig Smith for renovating and painting the outside of Amber Yurana Cancer House. The paint and filler were organised by Inspirations Paints Ulladulla and supplied free by Dulux paints. The house was painted in 4 days. 🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌

Upcoming events:

Blessing of the Fleet Princess Ball is on the Saturday 6th April. Rotarians are encouraged to attend tickets are going on sale Sunday week cost $75.00 available at the Civic Centre between 5pm and 7pm.

The Dunn Lewis Centre is the venue for the District Conference in March 2020. Saturday Night Dinner's theme is the roaring 20s.

Needing assistance with the Easter raffle looking at a seafood raffle using the chocolate wheel. Members are required to assist with the running of the raffle on the day. Monies raised are going to our Club.

Thank you to Grant Schultz, Shelagh & Emile Jansen, Jo Jones, Phil Brown, Andrea Tucker, Rhondda Purtell, Ian Tibbles, Annie & Simon Brown and Avril Pryor for working in the Steak Bar at Milton Show. Hoping the amber liquid assisted with the hot conditions in the Bar.

A Big Thank you to everyone who attended the Rotary Foundation Seminar at the Dunn Lewis Centre on Saturday 2nd March 2019.

Almoner Bill Harris informed member of the progress of the following people Reg Sawyer still is at David Berry Hospital for rehab after a stroke, Maisie Bennett and Elaine Matthews both are at Nowra Private going well, Keith Bennett is going well though is undergoing tests, and Zilma Turnbull is at Milton Hospital at last report not well. Thank you to Bill for your ongoing updates of our members and their families.

Phil Brown BOF is running well, new sponsors are on board, Rehearsal are in full swing for the Princess Ball. Major Shoalhaven City Council and Ex Servos. Leonie Smith informed members that there is live music before the parade first time ever and the highlight of the day is the Elton John cover band. Phil then thanked Leonie Smith and Stephen Hladio for their efforts in organising the Entertainment and Stall holders.

Ideas from Members for Fundraising for the Club

Suggestions were a Blue Light Disco, good band, guest speaker for next to nothing, movie premiere possibly Star Wars last movie, families' fun day, International Rotary Day or Men's day hosting a lunch. Hosting a Bunning sausage sizzle, chocolate wheel in a busy part of the town during holiday time. Car raffle start in January to draw at Blessing of the Fleet, collecting of bottles earn and return.

Applying for grants. Rock and Roll night, Ron Coote guest speaking, colour walk, David Morrison wine talk.

Thank You Yvonne Young for the meeting's report.

End of Report
