Representatives from Ulladulla High School (UHS) speaking on the pilot program “students coaching students” where year 9 students coach year 7 students. It is a voluntary program.

Members were informed of the Grow coaching where two people met one on one to assistance with ongoing needs via coaching. Coaching skills, growth model coaching ways of assisting students who are struggling with their subjects, developing trust, being present, listen actively. Why the student need coaches, as it increased self-confidence, improved skill in perspective improved relationship.

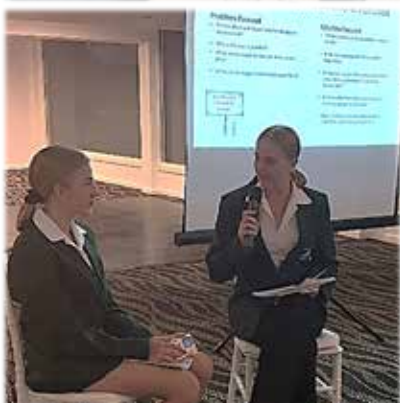

UHS is only one of the first two public schools to be chosen for the coaching program. There are currently 6 schools doing this program in the state.

The speakers spoke on the different levels of listening Level 1 cosmetic listening, level 2 conversational listening, level 3 active listening, level deep listening. Coaching aims to improve how students listen.

Student’s Ella and Annalise did a role play of the coaching process and how the students are coached. There are currently twenty Year 9 students that have completed the training for the coaching program, the next step is to recruit the Year 7 students.

The students aren’t to be mentored the focus is to coach students. Mentoring is giving the answer though thru coaching students are assisted though the issues that students may be facing.

Denise Loft spoke to members regarding the cost of the program and aiming just to have a just a boy’s groups. With a male teacher to be coaching teacher.

L-R Ella Thompson and Annalise Hare – Students, Wayne Fry, Denise Lofts – UHS Principal, Suzy Taplin and Amanda Stewart – UHS Teachers.
