11 May 2021 Meeting;

President Leonie welcomed members and Peter Hughes (a Past Member) with his Partner, Catherine. One minutes silence was called by President Leonie in memory of our oldest member Honorary Member Brian Johnson who passed away the previous weekend aged 89 years.

Presidents Leonie reported on the Board Meeting as follows:

1. Rotary needs to organise alternatives for storage of all its plant and equipment. Meeting with SES to investigate possibilities. Only just over $1000:00 is held in the Storage facilities fund.

2. Council on Resolutions meeting upcoming, if any member has any suggestions.
3. Working Bee at Bunnings raised over $560.00. Thanks to those members who volunteered their time. Any surplus meat to be stored in the Rotary Freezer at Keith Bennetts Home.
4. Nominations called for SESCO Awards Function to announce winners to be held at Dunn Lewis at $35.00 a head on 9th June. Leone encouraged members to attend.
5. Leone called for suggestions for "Work Place" visits.

Vocational Report- Director Bernie Jones: the Awards function to be held on 1st June. Each winner will be awarded $1000.00.

Clare Nyholm reported on the Blessing of the Fleet Ball to be held on 13th November. There will be no Parade.

Community Service- Assistant Director Guy Porter: Bunnings BBQ Saturday 8th May raised $560.95 for the Donation account, thank you to all who assisted with the BBQ, next one is Saturday 24th July 2021.

End Trachoma toiletry has been sent to Alice Springs; this project is ready for wrapping up. Thank you to all involved. Rotary's Inspirational Women are now open for nomination, so if you know an inspirational woman who is a non-Rotarian, please let us know.

Emile Jansen reported the Comedy Night raised $3,700. Congratulations to Emile and his helpers,

Almoners Report-Bill Harris; Brian Wilkins, Simon Brown and Tim Gregory are all well.

Treasures Report-Ross Wade: "Money comes in and money goes out" quote- Peter Culham. $20,000.00 yet to be distributed from moneys held.

Bank Balances; General $34,000.00      Donations $34,000.00
 Blessing of the Fleet $108,000.00      Storage Facility $1200.00 😞.

Induction of Honorary Membership: Peter Hughes, with his partner Catherine by his side, was inducted as an Honorary Member of the Club for his service to the Club and local community in particular providing storage facilities of the Club's plant and equipment for many years and his dedication to the Life Education Programme.

Club Service-Tony Fondacaro: 1. There will be no meeting next Tuesday as a result of the Combined Services Dinner to be held at the Dunn Lewis Centre on Wednesday 19th May.

2. There is a Club Development Meeting to be held on 22nd May at Broulee

3. The Changeover Dinner will be held at the Mollymook Bowling Club on 30th June.

Guest Speakers the newly inducted members of our Club, all of whom were made welcome.

Peter Hodge. Peter was born in the "Bush" but grew up in the Northern Beaches. In 1978 Peter qualified as an Architect and entered into private practice then travelled to Canberra. He is married with 4 children and 8 grandchildren.

Peter spent 25 years as a Senior Associate in private practice before becoming a Project Manager the Commercial Building industry. His interest is in Energy efficient buildings and sustainability. Before his retirement Peter joined the Commonwealth Government in developing transportable buildings for remote communities.

Peter's hobbies are Gardening, Horticulture, Football and Tennis.

Tim Trescowthick. Tim's father was a farmer in Holbrook (where lies the Submarine) and is where Tim grew up. Tim went to Boarding School then Monash University where he qualified in Economics. Tim became an Accountant and did a few years practice in Auditing. Tim returned to the farm and stayed with it, including the ups and downs, for 40 years. He capped off one of his years farming in 2004 when he won Champion Wheat Crop for that year. Tim is married with three daughters. The farm has now been sold and he and his wife have moved to Mollymook where they both run Air BNB Accommodation service from their home. Peter enjoys motor bike riding!

Louise Garrett. Louise has been a member of our Club for some months now and has already rolled up her sleeves for the Club and Community.

Louise was born in Cowra and she went to Cowra High. Her father was a Rotarian and an ex-Prisoner of War, mother was a War Nurse. Louise travelled to England then returned to become a Trainee Radiographer in Macquarie Street Sydney. She then made the brave decision to return overseas and joined a Travel Agency to work as a cook for traveller in Europe, met her husband, an Englishman, in Morocco and they have two daughters.

We are fortunate to have all three of our new members and we will make them very welcome.

Thank you, John Hozack, for the meeting's report.
